BOARD WORKS ON A VERDICT IN KIELY TRIAL

Attorney Leahy Makes Concluding Plea for Suspended Chief.

EVIDENCE ALL TAKEN

Prosecutor Will Not Argue, Saying That It Is Unnecessary.

TALKED OF TRAITORS

Maroney Testifies Kiely Said He Had Them in His Office.

Following the completion of arguments by attorneys for suspended Chief of Police Kiely, President Stewart of the Police Board, before which Kiely has been on trial for a week, announced at 12:15 p. m. that the trial was ended, and the board at once went into executive session to consider its verdict. At 1:30 it adjourned for lunch without announcing a decision.

As Chief Kiely left the board room a Post-Dispatch reporter asked him what he thought the decision of the board would be.

He replied, "That's a conundrum that is hard to answer."

"What will you do if your position as Chief is taken from you?" he was asked.

"I don't know," was the answer. "Probably take a rest first. I need one badly. The only rest I have yet had has been in the last seven months during my suspension. And yet that cannot be called a rest. It has been the hardest work of all. It has torn my heart apart."

Kiely's Argument.

Attorney John S. Leahy, representing Kiely, declared in his argument before the board that there was nothing for the board to consider in the Kiely case but the evidence of former Commissioner Andrew C. Maroney.

Leahy's argument was begun at 10:30 a. m. after Prosecutor Williams announced that as a result of a stipulation with Kiely's attorneys he would not call any more witnesses in rebuttal.

In reply to a question from President Stewart, Prosecutor Williams stated that he did not consider it necessary to argue the case. He said he believed the commissioners were able to consider the evidence fairly without the formality of an argument by counsel, such as is customary in criminal cases.

Leahy then began his argument.

"There has been no evidence introduced at this hearing to show that Kiely was guilty of a dereliction in transferring June to take the place of an officer under suspicion of grafting," said Leahy. "On the contrary, the evidence showed that he rendered the department a great service, because the true character of June would never have been established if June had not been transferred.

Says Rea Proven Good Man.

"It made no difference what were the incidents in connection with the disturbances at the Twenty-eighth Ward polling place in the Republican primaries. The question is 'Did Kiely try to induce Dorsey to commit perjury before the grand jury?' Dorsey said that at the time he made out his report he thought it was true. How could Kiely induce him to do something wrong when he knew he was but following the dictation of his own conscience?

"If there is any case at all against Kiely it is in connection with the Rea charge. If Rea had made the defense in his case that was made at this hearing for him he would still be a member of the Police Department.

"You cannot seriously consider the testimony of Maroney. You know that the first day he sat on this board he demanded the resignation of Kiely. He showed on the witness stand that when he is in the heat of passion he cannot tell the truth."

After Leahy's speech, during the latter part of which the attorney fairly screamed at the board and beat the railing in front of their desk, the argument of Saunders came as a vivid contrast.

Saunders hasn't much voice and he delivered his speech in sing-song fashion. Saunders said he had never argued in a case in which his heart had been more interested.

Saunders took up two charges in detail. He said the prosecution had not proved that James June on the police force was the same man as James K. June who had a police record. He said there had been no proof in the evidence advanced that June had continued his relations with the woman with whom he had been living, after he was taken on the force.

Saunders then devoted himself to an arraignment of all the witnesses against Kiely in the Rea charge.

Chief Kiely left the stand at 4:35 p. m. Tuesday. Except for one hour he had been testifying since 10 a. m. Most of the afternoon was taken up with his cross-examination.

After he left the stand former Police Commissioner Maroney and Sergt. David Field, who succeeded Sergt. Rea at Union Station, were recalled. Sergt.

'TIS VERY LAST STRAW HAT DAY

North Winds Will Make Felt Skypieces Necessary.

This is the last straw hat day. Cool temperature and north winds will do what the rules of the street have failed to do.

The forecast: Partly cloudy and cooler Wednesday night. Thursday fair, with moderate temperature. Northerly winds.

Rain has fallen in the last 24 hours in the Ohio Valley, the Southeastern States and those of the Southwest. The disturbance which was central over Georgia has moved until it is central over Northern Kentucky.

8-HOUR LAW FOR UNCLE SAM'S HELP

Roosevelt Extends Rule to All Public Work Conducted by Government.

OYSTER BAY, Sept. 19.—President Roosevelt toda extended the eight-hour law to apply to all public work under supervision of any department of the Government.

This order affects more particularly work on river and harbor improvements.

7TH BRYAN DOG IS TURNED DOWN

Girl's Pet Not Allowed to Matriculate at Hollis Institute.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ROANOKE, Va., Sept. 19.—The amiable lamb owned by Mary and celebrated for the snow whiteness of its fleece, fared far better from an education standpoint than the French poodle of Grace Bryan, daughter of the Nebraskan commoner, for the poodle has been denied the right to matriculate at Hollis Institute, where his mistress has been entered as a student for the present term.

All of Miss Bryan's pleadings in behalf of her pet have come to naught, and the authorities of the school have refused pointblank to enter into any negotiations, fearing perhaps that the yelp of the pup will not have the correct Parisian accent, and prove a corrupting influence among the French pupils. Miss Bryan says that there are other dogs in her family—six of them—but that her canine is the star of them all.

"I did beg to be allowed to have my dog with me," said Miss Bryan. "And although I know it is against the rules, I believe the teachers soon would have learned to love him as well as I do."

PASTOR SUES 24; SLANDER CHARGED

Flock's Property Attached in $60,000 Suits—Caused by Beer Fight.

WESTFIELD, Mass., Sept. 19.—The Rev. Ladislas Przybylski, pastor of the Holy Trinity Church, has attached the property of 20 parishioners in suits for slander. Four other slander suits were instituted by Father Przybylski last week. The suits aggregate $60,000.

The litigation is the result of strained relations between the pastor of the church and a strong element in the church arising from the refusal of Father Przybylski to sanction the sale of beer by a church society.

Violence has been threatened Father Przybylski followers, who have appealed to the police for protection. It is understood that Father Przybylski will ask for the arrest of other parishioners on warrants alleging criminal libel.

PADUCAH MERCHANT DEAD.

Capt. George O. Hart Was Former Steamboat Owner.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PADUCAH, Ky., Sept. 13.—Capt. George O. Hart, 72 years old, one of the most influential and prominent citizens of the city, died at 10 o'clock this morning of a general breakdown. He had been ill for some time.

He was born in Pennsylvania and came here after the war. For years he operated steamboats and for 30 years had been the leading hardware merchant of the city. He leaves many prominent relatives, among whom are: Mrs. Henry Weissenger of Louisville. He leaves two sons here and a brother in the West.

ONE REGISTRATION DAY.

All Polling Places Will Be Open Thursday.

Thursday will be the only day of registration for the November election. All the precinct polling places will be open, and voters who have removed from the precinct in which they were last registered will be obliged to register again.

Those who fail to enroll their names Thursday will not be permitted to do so later, unless satisfactory excuse is made to the Board of Election Commissioners. Sickness or absence from the city is ordinarily the only excuse accepted in such a case.

TAFT AND BACON IN CONFERENCE WITH PALMA

American Secretaries Escorted to Palace Upon Arrival in Havana Harbor.

MEET ZAYAS ON DENVER

Discuss Cuban Situation Informally With Leaders Representing Liberal Party.

TROUBLE AT CIENFUEGOS

Marines From the Dixie Landed There to Protect Uncle Sam's Property.

HAVANA, Sept. 19.—The American cruiser Des Moines, with Secretary of War Taft and Assistant Secretary of State Bacon on board, entered Havana harbor at 7 o'clock this morning. The cruiser came from Florida at the moderate speed of 11 knots in order not to arrive before daylight.

All on board are well.

The secretaries had breakfast early and at 8:30 the captain of the port conveyed Senor O'Farrill, the Cuban Secretary of State, Mr. Cleeper, the American charge d'affairs, on board. At the same hour Commander Colwell came over from the cruiser Denver.

Messrs. Taft and Bacon had a long, informal and private conference with Senor O'Farrill. Afterwards they talked with Commander Colwell and others.

Secretary Taft said he had arranged tentatively to hold hearings at the home of American Minister Morgan in Marianao, but that no definite arrangements would be made until the informalities were over.

At 10 o'clock the party landed and went to the palace, where Minister Morgan presented Secretaries Taft and Bacon to President Palma and a conference was held.

Zayas Boards the Denver.

Commander Colwell of the United States gunboat Denver, now lying in Havana harbor, has cabled the navy department at Washington that Alfredo Zayas, the president of the Liberal party and delegate to represent the revolutionists in the conference about to begin in Havana, is on board the Denver and is awaiting Secretary Shaw and Assistant Secretary Bacon there.

It is supposed he is afraid to trust himself in reach of the government officers at present.

Welcomed by Mayor.

A fairly large crowd had assembled at the Caballera wharf to witness the landing, but there was no demonstration of any sort as the launch carrying the guests, whose visit is considered so momentous to Cuba's future, swept around the cruiser Denver, which is still moored in front of this wharf.

The Denver's sailors were drawn up and presented arms and the cruiser fired a salute as the Secretary of War stepped ashore. The Secretary at once faced a score of clicking cameras. Then the Mayor and the councilmen of Havana, clad in black frock coats, advanced and delivered a formal welcome, to which Secretary Taft responded briefly. The party thereupon entered automobiles and were driven to the palace.

BODY IS ROBBED; WOMAN ARRESTED

Late Society Leader's Friend Accused of Stealing $5000 in Diamonds.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 19.—Mrs. Emma Howard is under arrest in Stockton, charged with the theft of diamonds valued at $5000 from the body of her friend, Mrs. Henry H. Briggs, who was a wealthy society leader of Pasadena.

Mrs. Briggs had been in failing health for some time, and about six weeks ago Mr. Briggs decided to take her to Santa Monica, hoping that the sea air might prolong her life. The Briggs family accepted the invitation of Mrs. Howard to stay at her house, though Mr. Briggs paid board and services rendered his invalid wife.

According to the allegations of Henry Briggs, Mrs. Howard entered the room where his wife's body lay and took away the dead woman's jewels. He says he paid little attention to the actions of Mrs. Howard at the time, as he was stricken with grief. Shortly after the death of Mrs. Briggs the Howard woman is said to have taken the diamonds to a Santa Monica jeweler and asked to tell her the value of the gems.

She seemed astonished to learn they were worth $5000. Mr. Briggs returned to Pasadena and a few days later sent a detective to find Mrs. Howard and recover the jewels. Mrs. Howard, or Mrs. Stokes as she has since called herself, had disappeared and the detective had a long chase for the woman. She was caught in Stockton and the jewels recovered.

Borbein Estate to Wife.

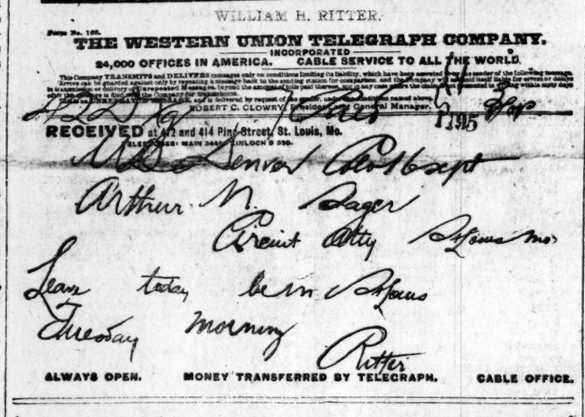

The will of Henry Borbein, filed for probate Wednesday, gives his entire estate to his wife, Maria, provided she does not remarry. In the event of marriage she will have only her dower right. The remainder will be divided equally among his sons—Charles, Julius and Herman, and his stepson Henry F., with the exception that Henry F. shall receive $1500 less than the sons. In the event of a son's death, the son's wife is to inherit her husband's share, unless she shall remarry.

FLEES WHEN QUESTIONED

Snyder's Attorneys Say He Demanded Hush Money, Which Was Refused.

WANTED TO SELL MINE

Sager Paid His Fare, Had to Dismiss Boodle Case in His Absence.

Eugene Sweeney, the promoter with whom W. H. Ritter was in conference since he offered to testify against Snyder, was taken into custody by Detective Dotzman at 2:30 p. m. Wednesday on order of Circuit Attorney Sager. He was taken to Mr. Sager's office on a street car.

Post-Dispatch reporters Wednesday afternoon found W. H. Ritter, missing witness in the Snyder bribery case, at the Belcher Hotel, Fourth street and Lucas avenue, in company with Eugene Sweeney, Snyder's comrade and agent in the passage of the Central Traction bill.

After a brief conversation, in which he denied his identity, Ritter dashed out of the hotel, leaving his lunch unfinished, ran down Fourth street, tore through the rear entrance of the Norvell-Shapleigh Hardware Co.'s establishment, out at the front door and boarded a Washington avenue car going west.

Ritter left the car at Sixth street and Washington avenue, and when asked why he was running said he did not know.

Ritter went to the hotel at noon Tuesday and registered under the name of W. H. Smith, Denver, Colo. He spent practically all of his time in the bar with Eugene Sweeney.

Post-Dispatch reporters found Sweeney eating his lunch on the third floor of the hotel. He denied that he knew the whereabouts of Ritter.

A moment later the reporter found Ritter in the washroom, washing his hands and face.

When accosted as Ritter he declared the reporter must be mistaken. He backed out, saying he would be glad to talk about Central Traction affairs if he was assured that the reporter was not a detective or deputy sheriff, with subpenas for him.

Ritter went into the dining room, hurriedly slipped on his coat and went downstairs with Sweeney. He took one fleeting glance into the barroom and fairly fell down the steps to the street. He saw the reporter talking to a Denver man, whom he suspected of being a detective.

Ritter walked a dozen feet east on Lucas avenue and then turned south on Fourth street. Seeing that he was followed, he broke into a swift run. He attempted to catch an East St. Louis car, but seeing a reporter ahead of him, he turned and dashed at full tilt through the Norvell-Shapleigh hardware store, then boarded the westbound car.

He left the car at Sixth street and appeared to be frightened half to death. He refused to speak of Central Traction affairs, and seemed under the impression that he was being pursued by detectives.

The ex-delegate was puffing like a steam engine, and great beds of perspiration stood out on his brown face at the conclusion of his exciting race. He is very fat, but he made bursts of speed that showed him a remarkably good sprinter.

Sweeney remained in the barroom at the hotel and insisted on taking credit to himself for doing vastly more for St. Louis than he had ever been paid for. He declared that he was not in any way connected with boodle transactions, and that he was the inventor of the transfer system, now in general use throughout the United States.

Sweeney, who was Snyder's right-hand man in promoting the Central Traction deal, has been in Denver, and left there Sunday night with Ritter. He lives at the Belcher Hotel when he is in St. Louis, occupying room 361. It was at the far end of the hall from his room that Sweeney was found seated at the lunch table.

The reporter inquired for Ritter.

"Ritter," said Sweeney. "Ritter, why, I don't know any Ritter. You must be mistaken."

When Ritter was accosted in the washroom he looked amazed.

"That is not my name; you must be mistaken."

The reporter assured Ritter that he knew he was not mintaken, and asked for a statement regarding the conspiracy to which he referred in his letter to Gov. Folk.

"I insist that you are mistaken, and that I am not Ritter," he said.

He then remarked that if he were sure the reporter were not a detective he would talk. In the next three minutes he dashed out of the hotel, without taking time to get his baggage, and started on his exciting run through the streets.

Attorney Morton Jourdan, who has been associated with Judge Priest in the defense of R. M. Snyder, when

RITTER'S LETTER TO FOLK, CHARGING SNYDER CONSPIRACY

Gov. Joseph W. Folk, Jefferson City.

I was a member of the House of Delegates at the time the Snyder measure was passed, and handled the money in the House for Snyder for its passage and obtained the money from Snyder.

I know there is a conspiracy to defeat the Snyder prosecution by the absence of witnesses who are paid to be away. The understanding is the Court will dismiss the case if the witnesses are not there. I can give the address of every witness. Uthoff, Dieckmann and others are here. I know where the balance are, and I know the conspiracy.

Mr. Eugene Sweeney is also here, stopping at the Brown Palace Hotel, but in no manner engaged in this affair, but he will corroborate the statement I make.

The entire conspiracy is to defeat the purpose of the law. Knowing that you are the instigator of this prosecution, you, no doubt, will feel an interest in this. I communicate these facts to you in confidence.

ARGUMENTS SOON IN PEONAGE CASE

Acquittal of Smith Brothers of Southeast Missouri Is Expected.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CAPE GIRARDEAU, Mo., Sept. 19.—The acquittal of the Smith brothers in the peonage case before the United States District Court here is expected. Witnesses for the defense have testified that they were treated as other laborers, that they were not locked in their close quarters at night to prevent their escaping and that they were not guarded during the day.

John Stone, a negro boy who worked on the Smith farm, testified yesterday that he placed the locks on the quarters of the negro laborers the night before the United States officers made their raid which resulted in the arrest of the Smiths. He said Warner, a negro who swore a guard had put one of his eyes out by beating him, had but one eye when he went to work on the Smith plantation.

The evidence of the defense will all be in by this evening by an agreement of the attorneys. The arguments will begin tomorrow morning.

Bryan Club to Meet.

The Bryan Democratic Club of the Eleventh Ward will meet Wednesday evening in the Bohemian gymnasium, Neosho street and Minnesota avenue. The meeting will be called to order at 8 o'clock.

TWO INJURED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

Men Entered in Vanderbilt Cup Race Hurt and Machine Wrecked.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—George Robertson and his mechanician, Arthur Warren, were seriously injured in an automobile accident near Mineola, L. I., today, while on a practice spin for the Vanderbilt Cup race. Robertson was steering his 90-horse power car over the Vanderbilt course, when, at Hairpin turn, the sharpest curve on the course, the car swerved wide, struck a telegraph pole and hurled its occupants out with terrific force.

Mr. Robertson sustained a broken collar bone and his mechanician two broken ribs. Both were reported in a serious condition.

Just behind was Elliott F. Shepard, speeding in his machine. He summoned an ambulance from a hospital at Mineola and the injured men were removed to that institution. Robertson's car is believed to be too badly damaged to take

General Manager of the Rock Island, Leading Rescue Parties, Declares It Impossible to Estimate the Number Killed—Survivors Afloat on Rafts.

Rock Island Manager, on Scene, Says Number Killed Is Unknown

DOVER, O. T., Sept. 19.—D. E. Kain, general manager of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railroad, who reached Dover last night on a special train to supervise the search for passengers lost in the wreck of Rock Island passenger train No. 12, which went through the Cimarron River Bridge yesterday morning, said to a representative of the Post-Dispatch shortly before noon today:

"I am unable to make any estimate of the loss of life, even at this late hour. High water has kept me away from the south side of the river, where the train is submerged. I have little definite information. Anything I might say as to the loss of life would be only a guess. I hope and believe the reports of fatalities have been exaggerated, but I do not know.

"The engine, a combination mail and baggage car, a baggage car, the smoker and a day coach went down with the bridge. The chair car and two sleepers remained on the the track. One car, evidently imbedded in quicksand, is visible from the shore. Men are crossing the river in skiffs and will make a thorough search of this car.

"I have no idea how many lives were lost. Nobody has any definite information on that point now."

BY WILLIAM COOK.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

DOVER, O. T., Sept. 19.—I have just returned from the scene of the Rock Island wreck, which occurred Tuesday morning two miles south of this place. Up to this time no bodies have been taken from the wrecked cars, which lie at the bottom of the Cimarron River.

The engine and two cars are entirely submerged. The combination baggage and smoking car and the day coach are partly visible above the water. It will be impossible for the rescuers to make any headway toward recovering the bodies until the water recedes. The river fell about eighteen inches last night and is still falling.

It is entirely out of the question to make an estimate on the loss of life at this time. Men are rowing about in skiffs looking for dead bodies. The Rock Island has a pile driver at work at both the north and south sides of the river and expects to be running trains over the Cimarron in two or three days.

Piles of wreckage in the Cimarron River at points one and two miles below the scene of the wreck were examined by men in boats today. An effort was made to find the 20 persons who are believed to have been in the smoker and are still missing.

With long prods, the debris, consisting of splintered boards, furniture from coaches, and baggage was disturbed, but not a body was found. When the train took the bridge, which had been undermined, the piling and rails that held it in place snapped and the train, excepting two Pullmans in the rear, was precipitated into the 25 feet of water.

It was reported today by telephone that bodies of five men were taken from the river 10 miles southeast of the scene of the wreck early today. Another telephone report from down the river said that a passenger who escaped from the wreck on the debris was lodged in the middle of the river and that it had been impossible to rescue him owing to the swift current.

SMOKER WITH 20 PASSENGERS DISAPPEARS UNDER THE WATER

By Associated Press.

CIMARRON BRIDGE (Via Kingfisher), O. T., Sept. 19.—Contrary to yesterday's reports, it develops today that 20 persons who were known to have occupied the smoker on the northbound Rock Island train that went into the Cimarron River near Dover yesterday morning, are unaccounted for.

Efforts are being made to locate the smoker, which is supposed to be about 175 yards below the site of the bridge.

A strong eddy is believed to mark the spot where the smoker sank. The water has fallen five feet from the high mark of yesterday, but neither the engine, baggage car nor smoker can be seen.

When the train went off the bridge, the baggage car, smoker and day coach broke loose, and, toppling off the wrecked bridge, swung down stream. Immediately the baggage car sank.

The smoker half floated with one end above water. The couplings between it and the day coach broke and, submerged, it was carried down the river for a distance of over 100 yards. None of the persons who escaped saw anyone leave the smoker, except four persons who stood on the roof of the car when it was struck by a portion of the wrecked bridge. They were knocked into the water and rescued finally several miles down the river, clinging to debris.

Another death was added to the list of known victims today

BUENOS AYRES DOCKS ON FIRE; GALE BLOWING

Shipping at South American Metropolis Is Threatened by Flames.

CAPITAL IS IN DANGER

Wind From the Andes May Cause Conflagration in the City.

Special Cable to the Post-Dispatch.

BUENOS AYRES, Sept. 19.—The docks here are doomed in a fire which has been raging for more than two hours and which is past control. The shipping is involved. A gale is blowing from the Andes and the city is threatened. No large vessels are in danger, as a ship drawing more than twelve feet cannot approach nearer than five or six miles of the docks.

Buenos Ayres is the capital of the Argentine republic and is the largest and most important city of South America. Its population is more than 400,000. It is situated on the west side of the La Plata estuary, here thirty miles wide and 150 miles from the sea.

The trade is much impeded on account of the difficulty of navigating the La Plata and the want of a safe and a commodious harbor. Vessels with a draught of less than twelve feet generally go into the inner roads and anchor about a mile and a half from the city. The surf on the beach is very heavy when the wind blows from the southeast and another danger arises from the violent and sudden gusts of wind which frequently sweep across the pampas and the river from the Andes with tremendous fury.

MERCHANTS' BANK FORMED.

$1,000,000 Institution for Seventh and Locust.

The organization of a new National Bank, promoted by mercantile men, is practically completed, and the company expects to take its first steps in active business in about two weeks.

The new institution, which will be known as the Merchants' National, or Commercial National Bank, will have a capital of $1,000,000 and a surplus of $1,000,000. It has practically closed negotiations for the southwest corner of Seventh and Locust streets in the Mercantile Club Building. These offices will be remodeled and refitted in the latest improved fashion, and the company expects to occupy the entire ground floor of the building as fast as the leases of some of the present tenants expire.

E. S. Lewis, president of the Hargadine-McKittrick Dry Goods Co., who has been one of the active men in the organization, is mentioned for the presidency of the company. Mr. Lewis stated Wednesday that the plans of the company are not in shape to be made public at present, but that the subscriptions to the capital stock have been over-subscribed 40 per cent and that nothing now remains to cause the enterprise to be abandoned.

Efforts have been made to place the majority of the stock of the company among the merchants of Washington avenue. The directors of the institution have also been selected from the largest and most prominent business houses of the city and largely among the commercial and mercantile interests.

Thomas H. Wagner, vice-president of the Missouri-Lincoln Trust Co., is mentioned as one of the leading officials of the new institution.

WRECKED CAR LOST IN RIVER; NO TRACE OF 20 PASSENGERS

when the 3-year-old son of Mrs. Kate Sells of Payne, O., died of strangulation, caused by swallowing sand and water.

WRECK VICTIMS CARRIED DOWN RIVER ON RAFTS

DOVER, O. T., Sept. 19.—Clinging to driftwood or huddled on rafts formed by the wreckage of four passenger coaches, survivors of yesterday's Cimarron River disaster are floating down stream on the breast of a veritable flood, beyond the reach of rescuers, while in two other coaches which are slowly sinking out of sight in the quicksand of the river's bed are imprisoned the bodies of an unknown number of passengers who had no chance to escape.

The exact number of fatalities is not known, cannot be even approximately estimated this morning, and may never be ascertained. When the smoker of Rock Island passenger train No. 12 plunged into the river early yesterday morning it carried between 25 and 30 persons. So far as it is possible to learn, not one of these passengers has been accounted for, and although 24 hours have passed since the first relief party reached the scene of the disaster, not one body has been removed from the Cimarron.

When the news of the disaster was first flashed to nearby towns the death list was believed to exceed 100. Since that time many persons who could not be found near the scene of the accident were rescued from the river, miles away. It is not possible to say how many of these passengers have made their way to safety. It is not possible now to say how many others are still at the mercy of the Cimarron. It is known only that no word has come from scores of persons who were aboard the ill-fated train when it plunged from the bridge, and that no bodies have been removed from the wreckage.

Until the waters subside little can be done by the crowds that have assembled on the river bank in the hope of recovering the bodies of the dead or of alleviating the sufferings of the survivors. The railroad company, with all its powerful wrecking machinery, is powerless. The Cimarron is fully 1500 feet wide, swollen by terrific rains, with great waves roaring down the channel and over the two railway coaches which are still visible, though slowly sinking into the river bed.

I told him to come to my home, that I would remain up for him. He arrived in due time and told me this story:

Had a Mine for Sale.

"That one William Ritter, who was formerly a member of the House of Delegates had telegraphed him from some point in Missouri during the afternoon to meet that evening at the Royal Hotel in East St. Louis; that he went to East St. Louis and there met Ritter, who told him he could give damaging testimony against Snyder at this trial; that he had written to the Governor and the Circuit Attorney; that he would come to St. Louis as a witness, but that he had a mine in Nevada which he was unable financially to carry, and that he wanted my informant to go to Snyder and see if he could not sell the mine to him, or such an interest in it as would enable him to work it. My informant told him he would not communicate that fact to Snyder, and then it was suggested that he communicate it to one of his attorneys.

"That in the event he, Snyder, should purchase the mine, Ritter would not testify as a witness, and the facts which Ritter claimed to know were given to me in detail. It was also stated that Ritter would remain in East St. Louis until he could hear from Snyder with reference to the matter.

"I immediately replied that no communication would be had with Ritter by Snyder or his attorneys; that he could testify to what he pleased; that while I would transmit the communications to Snyder as I would any other matter concerning his case, that if any answer was made by Snyder it would be that Ritter could do as he pleased, and that there would be no communication with him of any character. My informant told me that he had given me the information because he thought I ought to have it, and that he would not further communicate with Ritter.

"If the trial had progressed on yesterday, we would, of course, have used this information in the cross-examination of Ritter as a witness, and would have developed the facts as I have stated them.

"Upon communicating to Snyder Tuesday morning what had occurred the night before, his answer was as emphatic as mine, and in addition I was informed that since his indictment, and while the prosecution was pending against him, Ritter had written to him urging him to purchase an interest in the mine, and to make an advance of certain moneys necessary to enable him to operate it.

"I make no comment and draw no conclusions as to Ritter's conduct or motive. I leave that to the public.

Stayed on East Side.

Ritter passed through St. Louis Monday night and went to East St. Louis, where he registered at the Royal Hotel and remained until 9 a. m. Tuesday.

In a letter to Gov. Folk, the mysterious ex-Delegate stated that he received $75,000 from Snyder in 1898 and distributed it among the members of the House combine for their votes on the Central Traction bill, which Snyder promoted. He declared that Snyder had not acted squarely with the men associated with him in the Central Traction deal, and that he was willing to be in St. Louis Sept. 18 and tell his story of the bribery of members of the House to corroborate the testimony of Uthoff with reference to the passage of the bill through the Council.

Believing that Ritter was conscience-stricken and anxious to make atonement for recreancy to his official oath when he was serving in the House of Delegates, the Circuit Attorney, after a conference with Gov. Folk, sent Ritter money to cover the expense of his journey from Denver to St. Louis.

Sager endeavored in vain to find Ritter Tuesday. Early Monday he received the following telegram from Ritter, dated in Denver, Sept. 16:

"Leave Denver tonight. Arrive St. Louis Tuesday morning.
(Signed) W. H. RITTER."

Had Promised to Appear.

Sager received a letter from Ritter a day or two earlier, in which he was assured that the former delegate would be here to testify against Snyder. The letter follows:

Sent from the Brown Palace Hotel, Denver.
Sept. 13, 1906.
Mr. Arthur Sager, Circuit Attorney, City of St. Louis.
Dear Sager: I understand the prosecution of the Snyder case comes up on the 18th of this month. I am willing to be there and make my testimony, which you know as well as [illegible] what it is. Snyder has not acted the man with anybody he came in contact with, and he isn't going to be the only man that gets clear to what others have had to suffer for years. My testimony will absolutely convict him, and I am willing to be there in person and present it. Yours very truly,
W. H. RITTER.
Address: 1221 Race street, Denver, Colo.

After writing this letter to Sager, Ritter had communicated with Gov. Folk. The Governor called Sager up over the long-distance telephone and communicated to him the contents of Ritter's letter.

Sweeney Wrote a "P. S."

Attached to this letter was a postscript which appeared to have been written by Eugene Sweeney, who was interested with Snyder in promoting the Central Traction scheme. The postscript read:

Uthoff and all witnesses are here for Snyder case. They are banking on having the case thrown out of court.
SWEENEY.

The District Attorney's office in Denver kept watch on Ritter's movements for several days. Sager was notified by the District Attorney Monday that Ritter and Sweeney had departed on an eastbound train. He stated in his telegram that Uthoff was still in Denver, and expressed the belief that the former Councilman, who was the chief witness at the first Snyder trial, had no intention of coming to St. Louis.

Mrs. Bernard H. Stoltman, a sister of Ritter, living at 7 South Euclid avenue, told a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday that she was expecting her brother in St. Louis at this time, but declared that she had not seen him or heard from him.

"I know nothing about him whatever," said Mrs. Stoltman. "I knew he was expected here about this time. If he is here I have not seen him."

Circuit Attorney Sager also tried to get a line on Ritter's whereabouts through Mrs. Stoltman, but she told him the same story.

Case Is Dismissed.

The information charging Snyder with bribery in connection with the Central Traction bill was dismissed on an order of nolle prosequi Tuesday by Circuit Attorney Sager, when Judge Reynolds of the criminal division of the Circuit Court refused to grant the State a continuance. Sager contended that he had not been able to get his witnesses into court, and filed an affidavit setting forth the efforts he had made in that direction and explaining the necessity of their testimony to the State's case.

Judge Reynolds said he proposed to treat the case as he would one of common assault, and refused to grant the continuance. He said the State had not exercised diligence in getting service on George J. Kobusch, joint promoter with Snyder in the Central traction affair, and Louis C. Diekmann, who acted as go-between in passing money from Snyder to Uthoff. Sager declared he had been endeavoring all summer through the Sheriff's office and by means of special process servers, to subpena Kobusch and Diekmann. He had not been successful, he said, and Uthoff had made his attendance contingent upon the appearance of Kobusch and Diekmann to corroborate him.

Snyder's attorneys urged an immediate trial. They said the case had been hanging fire in the courts for more than four years, and that their client was entitled to a hearing. When the nolle prosequi was entered, Snyder's attorneys expressed the opinion that the famous case was finally ended.

Sager says that he has three months in which to determine whether to file a new information against Snyder. Whether he does will depend on his ability to get the material witnesses in the case into court.

Ritter, whose failure to keep his voluntary promise to appear against Snyder is puzzling Sager, left St. Louis about the time John K. Murrell returned to St. Louis four years ago and made a complete confession involving 19 members and former members of the House combine in boodle transactions. He was formerly a prosperous butcher here. Until Gov. Folk received the communication from Ritter a few weeks ago, his whereabouts remained unknown to the prosecuting authorities. He was never indicted as the Central Traction bribery was outlawed by the statute of limitations when Folk obtained the absolute evidence of bribery in connection with it. It is thought that Ritter, believing he might in some way become involved, ran away.

Although the case was outlawed as to Ritter, who had lived here all the time, the effort was made at Snyder's first trial to show that Snyder did not live in Missouri enough of the intervening time to entitle him to the protection of the statute of limitations. The Supreme Court, in remanding the case, inclined to favor Snyder's contention that he had been a resident of Kansas City, but did not settle the point absolutely.

May Prosecute Uthoff.

Circuit Attorney Sager is considering the advisability of filing an information for perjury against Uthoff. He say Uthoff committed perjury in 1902 when he told the grand jury that he knew nothing about the Central Traction deal, and later he told all about it at the first Snyder trial.

At a recent conference Gov. Folk is said to have advised Circuit Attorney Sager not to drop the Snyder case, or if Uthoff refused to testify to bring him back to St. Louis as a defendant.

Gov. Folk at this [illegible]rview is reported to have pro[illegible]d Mr. Sager that he would issue a requisition for Uthoff on the Governor of Colorado the moment action against him was taken by the Circuit Attorney's office.

BABIES FOUND IN CABIN.

Three Children Are Given to Humane Society.

Three children, living in two squalid rooms in the cabin of Mr. and Mrs. John Cook at Meacham Park, just south of Kirkwood, were given into the possession of the Missouri Humane Society Tuesday by Judge Wurdeman of the St. Louis County Probate Court.

The attention of the Humane Society was directed to the children by Mrs. Sarah J. Edwards of Kirkwood, who went to the Cook cabin to get possession of Margaret, the 8-year-old child of Miss Lizzie Wendover, who was living at the cabin. The mother of this child had been taken from the Methodist Orphans' Home at the age of 4 by relatives of Mrs. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. H. Murray French, the latter president of the Graham Paper Co. They kept the girl until she was 18, and when they went to Huntsville, Ala., the girl remained behind. Miss Wendover died some time after her child, Margaret, was born. Mrs. Edwards interested herself in the child and to recover it visited the cabin of Cook.

"I have done much slum work," said Mrs. Edwards to a Post-Dispatch reporter. "I have visited the submerged sections in London, Paris and New York, but never before have I seen conditions like those in the Cook cabin. Four children, Cook and his wife lived in two rooms. They were filthy. The chickens roved unhindered over the bed and the children played about in the dirt."

The other three children were those of Mrs. Mary Coombs, who formerly lived at Cook's but now lives in St. Louis. One was 2½ years old. The others were twins, not yet 12 months old. Cook refused to give the children to Mrs. Edwards, declaring $100 board was due him for their maintenance. This necessitated proceedings by the Humane Society.

Mrs. Mary Calkins and Deputy Sheriff Olderworth went to the Cook cabin Wednesday and got the children. They are now in custody of the society in St Louis.

PADUCAH, Ky., Sept. 19.—The "red-light" district in Paducah is doomed. Circuit Judge W. Reed has set Dec. 1 as the date for the new order to go into effect. He stated that it had been customary for the Commonwealth Attorney to recommend fines, but in this instance he would fine them himself.

He assessed the usual fine, but gave them the warning notice. Those who own their property will not have to move, but they cannot keep immoral characters. The city Board of Park Commissioners want that territory for park purposes.

CIRCUIT ATTORNEY SAGER'S VERSION OF SNYDER'S CASE

Says Deputy Sheriffs Made Utmost Effort to Serve Needed Witnesses, and That Uthoff Promised Through Gov. Folk's Influence to Appear, But Disappointed Him.

Circuit Attorney Sager made to a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday a statement concerning the dismissal of the charge of bribery against Robert M. Snyder, millionaire promoter of the Central Traction bill, who was once sentenced to five years in the Penitentiary for bribing members of the Municipal Assembly. He related in detail the efforts he had made to bring the necessary witnesses here. Mr. Sager said:

"The case of the State against Robert M. Snyder was reversed by the Supreme Court, in Division No. 2, June 14, 1904. The case was remanded to the Circuit Court of the city of St. Louis for retrial at that time. It was on the docket when I took office in January, 1905. In reversing the case, the Supreme Court held: 'In reviewing the facts touching Snyder's residence, and the evidence produced by him, that defendant had a permanent residence in Kansas City, and there appearing no evidence of any intention on his part to abandon his home and residence there and to take up his residence in New York, the statute of limitations was a bar to prosecution.'

"The case was reversed apparently because of error in the instructions given by the Court, touching residence, and on account of the remarks of the Circuit Attorney, in his closing argument, when he stated that the testimony of the witness, Uthoff, was not denied—the Court holding that he thereby indirectly commented on the fact that the defendant failed to testify, which is prohibited by statute.

"When I took the office the witness Uthoff was in Colorado. Witnesses Shirley W. Johns and J. H. Aubere were out of the city, Johns being Washington correspondent of the Globe-Democrat. As the Supreme Court had held that the testimony touching the residence of Snyder at the first trial was not sufficient to sustain the verdict, it devolved upon the State to procure other testimony.

Folk Worked on Uthoff.

"This we started to do immediately, and some time in February, 1905, had found some new witnesses. We hunted from Boston to Texas and New Mexico, and did get some strong proof on the question of residence, which we thought would meet the demands of the Supreme Court.

"During this time we were constantly in correspondence with Uthoff, trying to get him to come on, and he positively refused to come, until some time in April of this year, when, with the aid of Gov. Folk, we got him to consent. The case was then set for trial May 3, but Uthoff failed us and refused to come, although up to the last minute we were led to believe he would appear.

"This was the first time the defendant announced 'ready for trial,' to wit, May 3, 1906. Though we applied for a continuance by making a formal application, and set out that we believed we could get Uthoff here, Judge Reynolds refused that continuance and forced us to dismiss the case.

"I then went to Denver and spent a week with Uthoff and his attorney. Uthoff said he wanted to get in touch with some member of his family before he gave me a final answer. I waited until he had written to St. Louis and got a reply, and with the assistance of his attorney, who was always persuading him to go, I got his promise that he would appear at this trial.

"He stated he wanted the other witnesses present, and I assured him, of course, they would be on hand—that being my expectation. I then wired this office from Denver and had an information filed. This was May 26.

"On my return, May 29, attorneys for the defense were in court, urging an immediate setting of the case. Judge Reynolds was disposed to set it down at once, and I told him in open court that, if he did, we could not be ready for trial and we would have to nolle prosequi the case and file a new information, as we had done before. Uthoff had stated he would not come until fall, under any circumstances.

"After some argument the court set the case for Sept. 18. As late as the middle of last week I received a telegram from Uthoff that he would come, without any condition attached to it, excepting the payment of his expenses and money he claims the State owes him for his appearance at the first trial, during Gov. Folk's time. I wired him $100 last Friday and told him I would settle the balance satisfactorily to him, and told him the case could not go to trial unless we had all necessary witnesses present. He seemed to know that Diekmann had not been served, and evidently presumed that Kobusch and Mepham had not been served, although the latter had been, and refused to come.

"May 29, 1906, the day when the case was set for Sept. 18, we caused subpenas to be issued for all the material witnesses residing in the city, including Mepham, Kobusch and Diekmann. Ever since that time we have been urging the Sheriff's office to get service on these men. Mr. Lance Ryan, Chief Deputy down here at the Four Courts, has been doing everything in his power, I believe, to get service, and has entrusted three different deputies with the service of the subpenas for Kobusch and Diekmann."

Saw Kobusch in New York.

"Do you know whether Kobusch and Diekmann were in the city after May 29?" Mr. Sager was asked.

"I know that Kobusch was," he replied, "but I don't know personally that Diekmann was, although I was informed he was."

"Did you meet Kobusch in New York?"

"I saw him in New York in August. I didn't meet him by engagement."

"Had he just came from St. Louis?"

"That was my understanding."

"Where was he destined for?"

"On his way to Europe, so I understand."

"Did you then discuss the Snyder trial with him?"

"Absolutely not. I didn't know whether he was served or not. I knew if he was served, he could be attached. He was served at the first setting, in May."

"Do you know whether Uthoff has been in St. Louis since May 29?"

"I don't think he has been here for two or three years, for I have tried to learn whether he would be here last Christmas, during the holidays, to see his family, and my information was that he was not here."

When asked about the remark of Judge Priest in court Tuesday criticising Mr. Sager's policy in reference to the Snyder case, Mr. Sager said:

"He stated in open court that the reason he understood the defense had not urged a trial was because I was vacillating between the proposition of dismissing the case, because of a want of evidence, in accordance with the Supreme Court's decision. He claimed that in that respect I vacillated. I answered him that I never had any intention of dismissing this case, except at the hands of a jury, and I have met the requests of counsel for defense and the importunities of his friends, a number of whom, influential characters, visited me, with the statement that I proposed to prosecute Snyder, if I could possibly get the witness, Uthoff, here."

Sheriff Couldn't Find Him.

"After the issuance of the subpenas for Diekmann and Kobusch, I visited the sheriff's office frequently to learn whether they had been served.

"When I asked the sheriff why he couldn't locate Kobusch, in view of the fact that he was in St. Louis between May 29 and the time he left for New York, in August, he gave this reason, that his deputies could not find him; they said they could not find him. That was his only excuse.

"He stated that he had changed his deputies, and finally, I understand, sent a negro up there with a note to deliver to Mr. Kobusch personally, thinking in that way he could get in. We discussed several ways to get the service, and that was suggested to me, and I told him I thought that would be a good idea, and I understand he did it.

"Some time early in August I called Sheriff Clarke here in my office. I knew he did not know anything about what was going on in the matter of service in this or any other case personally, and I told him the witnesses we wanted in this case against Snyder, and told him I knew positively one important witness, Kobusch, was in town; that I had seen him in the city, had seen him at the Alps one night, and that I had been informed that Diekmann had been in town, and that Mepham was in town.

"I told him I was his friend and didn't want to get him in trouble, but that there would be a scandal over this matter before this thing was through, because I didn't intend to take the responsibility, and I warned him to give the matter his personal attention.

"I said, 'These men are evading process; they don't want to testify, and they are not going to if they can help it.' He told me he would do all he could in the matter, and that ended that conversation.

Beer Is Not An Alcoholic Drink

An Eminent Scientist Says It Cannot Properly Be Called Such.

In view of the increasing popularity of beer, it is interesting to note what the really eminent modern scientists say of it. There has been, and still is in certain quarters, a prejudice against beer, but this prejudice, like many prejudices, is based on ignorance. Beer is not a "liquor," as it is frequently called by uninformed people, and it is not an intoxicant. Of course, it is possible to drink too much beer, just as it is possible to eat too much meat, but the proper use of beer is declared by eminent doctors to be beneficial to the health.

Dr. E. Struve of Berlin, a well-known scientist, says. "The specific characteristic of beer is not in its alcoholic property. Modern technics in beer brewing have a tendency to reduce the amount of alcohol in beer and to correspondingly increase the proportions of extracts, owing to the small amount of alcohol in beer, the same cannot properly be called an alcoholic beverage."

Pabst, for sixty years, has been the leader in all scientific developments in the art of brewing, and today Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is the recognized superior of all beers, richest in the extracts (food elements) of which Dr. Struve speaks, absolutely pure and clean and low in its percentage of alcohol.

Pabst Blue Ribbon Beer is so rich in food elements because brewed only from Pabst exclusive eight-day malt. This malt is grown from best selected barley and grown slowly, in Nature's own way, thus retaining all the vital food strength of the barley. It gives Pabst Blue Ribbon the highest food value and makes it most nourishing. The very small percentage of alcohol in Pabst Blue Ribbon, only three and a half per cent, serves to stimulate the digestive activity of the stomach, and cannot be injurious to the health. Pabst Blue Ribbon, the most healthful beer, the choicest of bottled beers, is the beer for the home.

TO BURN OR TO REDUCE?

Two Methods of Garbage Disposal in Conflict.

Notice of a fight by the garbage reduction interests against the garbage incinerating interests was given to the Council meeting when Councilman Rolfes announced that a hearing would be held at 3:30 p. m. next Tuesday by the Sanitary Affairs Committee of the Council on the measure appropriating $75,000 for the erection of a municipal incinerating plant.

The hearing was called by the committee at the instance of the Civic League, acting through Secretary [illegible]. The members of this body are said to believe that it would be an unwarranted waste to burn up the city's garbage so as to leave nothing behind except ashes. They desire to have the garbage "reduced;" that is, changed into fertilizer, grease and other products having a commercial value.

The members of the Board of Public Improvements have reached the conclusion that the saving from the sale of the product in reduction does not compensate for the increased cost of reduction over incineration.

The manufacturers of furnaces for incineration and plants for reduction are expected to have experts at the hearing to present the two sides. The members of the Board of Public Improvements have been invited to the hearing.

Dies After Reaching Home.

The funeral of William Victor of 5216 North Twentieth street will be held Thursday from Holy Name Church to Calvary Cemetery. Victor, who was a sheep buyer, left the Independent stockyards to go home to lunch. He fainted as he reach home and died an hour later. He had been a sufferer from tuberculosis for several years. He was 39 years old, and is survived by his widow and two children.

BOARD WORKS ON A VERDICT IN KIELY TRIAL

Field testified that attaches of Union Station had spoken to him of Rea's immorality.

Considerable time was taken up at Tuesday afternoon's session by a squabble between Chief Kiely's attorneys and Prosecutor Williams relative to some notes furnished Mr. Williams by members of the board from which Mr. Williams was directing his cross-examination of Kiely in regard to incidents which occurred at the meeting of the board when Kiely was requested to resign.

Objection to Prompting.

Attorneys Leahy and Saunders insisted that the members of the board sitting as judges in the case had no right to prompt Mr. Williams in his cross-examination of Kiely on a matter that is a vital issue in the case. Mr. Williams declared that the notes had not been furnished for that purpose. He said he received them from Inspector McDonnell, and of his own volition was using them in cross-examination. Attorney Saunders wanted to offer the notes in evidence, but the board would not entertain such a motion, but Saunders finally succeeded in making them part of the record of the case by reading them to the stenographer.

Maroney, as a rebuttal witness, provoked much laughter at the afternoon session. In a conversation with George Mockler, secretary of the City Council, Maroney said Mockler told him that one of the charges against Kiely ought to be that Kiely once stole a personal letter addressed to the late Maj. Harrigan in an effort to undermine the latter when he was Chief of Police. Mockler told Maroney, according to the latter, that that was one of the dirtiest pieces of work he had ever heard of.

Ollie Roberts' Defenders.

In cross-examination Maroney said he had no objection to repeating statements he made about Kiely if he were permitted to repeat the whole statement.

While in the Circuit Attorney's office he said he had occasion to observe the methods of the police department. He told Kiely that certain policemen were trying to prevent the conviction of Ollie Roberts when she was on trial for the murder of Edward Kelly. The evidence in that case showed, he said, that policemen had taken the revolver with which Ollie Roberts shot Kelly and had concealed it.

"I told Kiely there was a leak at headquarters," said Maroney, "and that orders issued by him were known all about town before they were carried into effect.

"Kiely told me he could not trust the man in the outer office, meaning his former secretary, Faulkner. 'I'm surrounded by traitors,' Kiely said. I told him that if that was the case he ought to get rid of his secretary. He told me he would if he knew of someone he could put in his place. I then recommended Charles Scholl as a man in whom the Chief could have the utmost confidence. Kiely also told me that Dr. Faulkner, his secretary's father, was hampering him in his administration of police affairs.

frequently spoke to Father Casey about the dives and dance halls on Olive street and Sixth street. I told Father Casey that conditions in the Police Department were appalling as shown by records in the Circuit Attorney's office."

Maroney said Judge Bishop did not think Kiely was joking at the time the latter said "Who in ——is Folk?"

"Bishop told me then," said Maroney, "that if he were Folk and was elected Governor, Kiely would be the first to walk the plank. 'When Folk is elected Kiely will be the first to crawl on his stomach,' Bishop said to me.

"I told Folk everything I knew about the Police Department, not through malice for anyone, but because I was a friend and subordinate of Folk.

"When I say I have no prejudice against Kiely I mean that I formed no opinion against him without first investigating. I did not prejudge him."

How Kiely Helped Folk.

In his direct examination Tuesday Kiely told of his loyalty to Folk before the latter was elected Governor.

"I co-operated with Folk in his crusade against the boodlers. I located Kratz in Mexico and telephoned the Chief of Police there to hold him for my officers. I wired the Chief of Police in New York when Kelly returned from Ireland to arrest him and when the New York police failed to do so I wired Philadelphia and succeeded in having Kelly apprehended there.

"During the heat of the boodle prosecutions, when there were rumors of plots to assassinate Folk, I detailed Detective John McGrath to follow him about without his knowledge, and when McGrath died I put in his place Dan Danaher. Folk was followed day and night at my instruction without his knowing anything about it."

"How many transfers have you made as Chief?"

"Thousands."

Kiely then told of being president of the National Bureau of Identification and how, with Desmond, he visited other large cities and studied police conditions.

Dorsey Meeting Incidental.

In his cross-examination Kiely denied that he went to the Newstead Avenue Station for the express purpose of showing Dorsey a copy of the report about the trouble at the Republican primaries. He said he had an engagement to meet Lieut. Mansfield out there and discuss some charges that had been preferred againsta an officer and that he told Dorsey to meet him there, thinking that he would kill two birds with one stone and save Dorsey considerable inconvenience.

For two hours Kiely then testified about the incidents of the Dorsey affair. He told of the arrest of the repeater and the assault on George Williams. He could not remember whether he had ordered the arrest of the repeater or if Williams had identified Lawler Daly as the man who struck him. He denied having told Dorsey that he (Kiely) had ordered the arrest of the repeater and that Williams had failed to identify Daly. He said he thought Dorsey's recollection of those matters was better than his.

"Why did you take Dorsey upstairs at the Newstead Avenue Station to show him a copy of his report? Why didn't you show it to him downstairs in the presence of the other officers?" asked Prosecutor Williams.

"I wanted to show Dorsey the assembly room. He had never seen the new station."

"Why did you assign June to take the place of a suspected officer in the Central District when you knew nothing about June? Why did you not select a man whom you knew and in whose integrity you had confidence?"

June's Paper Record Good.

"June's record on paper looked good to me."

"Why did you tell Maroney that if you were called to the stand in the Rea case you would have had to testify that Rea was a 'masher' and a 'woman chaser' if you knew nothing of Rea's character?"

"I told Maroney that I had heard Rea jokingly referred to as a lady's man 20 years ago."

"Didn't Sergeant Fields tell you last fall that if the rumors concerning Rea's conduct were true Rea must be a degenerate?"

"He did not."

Fields was later called in rebuttal and testified that he did have such a conversation with Kiely.

WANTED TO AMPUTATE

Man With Dislocated Elbow Wouldn't Let Them

Frank Skinner of 1916 Cherokee street, proprietor of the Skinner Express Co., fell down a flight of stairs at Sarah street and Easton avenue while delivering an express package, and his left elbow was dislocated. He called at the South Side Dispensary Tuesday night and was treated by Dr. Parker.

He said he had gone four hours without treatment and in that time had consulted four physicians. None would treat him, each saying that the arm would have to be amputated.

Died of Sudden Illness.

John Miller, bartender in a saloon at 5000 Easton avenue, became suddenly ill while at work Tuesday night and died a few minutes later in an ambulance on the way to the City Hospital. The body was taken to the Morgue. An inquest has been ordered to determine the cause of death.

INTERESTING FACTS.

For Nearly Every Man, Woman or Child.

A short time ago we published an article recommending to our readers the new discovery for the cure of Dyspepsia, called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and the claim then made regarding the wonderful curative properties of the remedy have been abundantly sustained by the facts. People who were cautious about trying new remedies advertised in the newspapers and were finally induced to give Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets a trial were surprised and delighted at the results. In many cases a single package costing about 50 cents at any drug store made a complete cure, and in every instance the most beneficial results were reported. From a hundred or more received we have space to publish only a few of the latest, but assure our readers we receive so many commendatory letters that we shall publish each week a fresh list of genuine, unsolicited testimonials and never publish the same one twice.

From James Yemmeisler, LaCrosse, Wis.: Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are doing me more good than anything I ever tried and I was so pleased at results that I gave away several boxes to my friends who have also had the same benefits.

From Jacob Anthony, Portmurray, New Jersey: I have taken Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets with the best results. I had Dyspepsia for 6 years, and had taken a great deal of medicine, but the Tablets seem to take right a hold, and I feel good. I am a farmer and lime burner, and I heartily recommend to everyone who has any trouble with his stomach to use these Tablets.

From Mrs. M. K. West, Preston, Minn.: I have received surprisingly good effects from using Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I gave one-half of my last box to a friend who also suffered from indigestion, and she had the same good results.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a certain cure for all forms of Indigestion. They are not claimed to be a cure-all, but are prepared for stomach troubles only, and physicians and druggists everywhere recommend them to all persons suffering from Nervous Dyspepsia, sour or acid stomach, heartburn, bloating or wind on stomach and similar disorders.

RUSSIAN GENERAL IS SLAIN BY REDS

Artillery Commander Mistaken as Member of Field Court-martial and Shot.

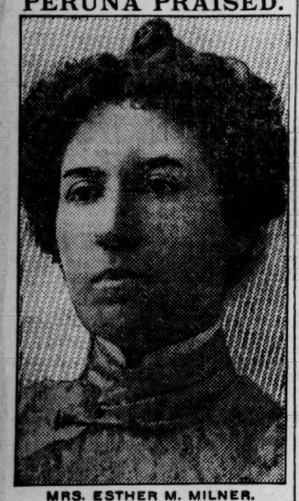

WARSAW, Sept. 18.—Gen. Nikolaieff of the artillery has been assassinated here. He was erroneously thought to be a member of the field courtmartial.

Gen. Nikolaieff was walking on Waelka street this morning when he was surrounded by five revolutionists and shot dead. The revolutionists escaped.

Shoveling Coal, Falls Dead.

John Holle, aged 55, fell dead while shoveling coal into the cellar of his home at 4371 Papin street Tuesday afternoon. He is survived by his widow and four children.

PERUNA PRAISED.

MRS. ESTHER M. MILNER.

Box 321, DeGraff, Ohio.
Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio:
Dear Sir—

I was a terrible sufferer from pelvic weakness and had headache continuously. I was not able to do my housework for myself and husband.

I wrote you and described my condition as nearly as possible. You recommended Peruna. I took four bottles of it and was completely cured. I think Peruna a wonderful medicine and have recommended it to my friends with the very best of results.

Esther M. Milner.

Very few of the great multitude of women who have been relieved of some pelvic disease or weakness by Peruna ever consent to give a testimonial to be read by the public.

There are, however a few courageous, self-sacrificing women who will for the sake of their suffering sisters allow their cures to be published.

Mrs. Milner is one of these. In her gratitude for her restoration to health she is willing that the women of the whole world should know it. A chronic invalid brought back to health is no small matter. Words are inadequate to express complete gratitude.

A GRATEFUL LETTER TO DR. HARTMAN

SKIFF IN RACE UPSETS IN RIVER

Three Alton Men Struggle in a Strong Current Until Fisherman Comes.

OPPONENTS DIDN'T HELP

Oar Slipped From Lock and Capsized the Boat—One Couldn't Swim.

John Tremmel came near drowning when the boat in which he, Phillip Tierney and Edward Hicks were racing wit hanother boat capsized Tuesday evening in the Mississippi River at Alton. He was carried away from the boat by the current when the craft overturned. Tierney helped him keep his head above water until the boat floated near enough for them to catch hold of it. They were towed ashore by George Kelly, a fisherman. The men in the other boat did not go to their assistance.

Eight young men made up a party Tuesday to go to the Missouri side below Alton Bridge Tuesday to fish. When they were ready to start back in the evening it was agreed that they should race to the Alton landing. Tremmel, Tierney and Hicks entered one boat and Fred Taylor, Harry McVey, Helb Squires, George Patterson and George Hutchinson the other. The course of each boat was to be chosen by the rowers.

The five men headed up stream toward the center span of the bridge. The three pulled across toward the Illinois shore, intending to take advantage of the slack current near shore.

Oar Slipped From Lock.

In the middle of the river one of Tremmel's oars slipped from the rowlock as he was pulling a strong stroke. He lurched to the side of the boat and capsized it, all three being pitched into the water.

Tierney and Hicks are good swimmers and were not in danger. Tremmel could swim only a little. He struggled to keep afloat as he was carried out of reach of the upturned boat.

Tierney swam to him and held him up until the boat came within reach and all three were able then to cling to it.

George Kelly saw the accident from the Missouri shore. He put out in his skiff and with mighty strokes sent his boat skimming to the rescue. Reaching the capsized boat with the three men holding to it he found them so excited that he feared that they would capsize his boat if they tried to climb into it, and he commanded them to stay in the water. Passing a line to the overturned boat, he towed it to shore with the three men hanging to it.

The five men in the other boat put back to the Missouri shore and dropped down to where Kelly landed their capsized friends. They said that their boat was so heavily loaded with five men in it that they feared it would be upset if they tried to save the men in the water.

The boat that had been capsized was righted and the three men again entered it and rowed to the Alton landing.

Post to Speak on Labor.

The lecture course of the Citizens' Industrial Association will begin Thursday night at the Odeon with an address by C. W. Post, president of the Citizens' Industrial Association of America. He will speak on the labor question. James A. Emery, secretary of the national association, will also speak. These addresses will be followed by Dr. E. B. McDowell in a new illustrated monologue, "Samoa."

THE "Apollo" Piano

Is the Only "Complete" Piano in the World

It is the only "player piano" that has telescoping end centers, and a take-up roll for playing all the different standard perforated music rolls; in fact, it contains five distinct scales of 58, 65, 70, 82 and 88 notes each.

This means the entire range of the modern piano keyboard, 7 1-3 octaves—88 notes can be used most effectively in this player.

No other "Player Piano" (Combination Piano) or Cabinet Piano Player has a range of over 5 octaves—65 notes.

The "Apollo" also has the unique and superior feature of being the only instrument with a Transposing Tracker Range (mouthpiece), by which the music can be transposed to a different "key" to suit any voice or accompanying instrument, such as violin, flute, mandolin, guitar, cornet, etc.

Special Notice

The "Apollo" can be had in the form of an easily moved separate cabinet, ADJUSTABLE to any upright, square or grand piano, but not fastened to it, and easily rolled away when hand playing is desired.

The "Apollo" Piano is a high-grade, standard upright piano, with the Apollo Concert Grand mechanism included in the case, always ready for either hand playing or automatic playing.

Prices Moderate. Cash or Monthly Payments.

Old Pianos taken in part payment at fair valuations.

Former Police Sergeant Dowdall Invades Sister-in-Law's House.

BATTLE IN PARLOR

Dowdall Beaten by Divorced Wife's Brother-in-Law With Revolver.

In quest of his child, awarded by the court to his divorced wife, former Police Sergeant William T. Dowdall invaded the home of Albert De Lanney, 3811 Russell avenue, pistol in hand, early Wednesday morning, and was badly beaten in a fight with De Lanney, in which several shots were fired. Then, jumping into a buggy in which a friend was waiting, he drove rapidly away. The police have been told to keep watch for him.

This exciting incident followed Dowdall's release on bond furnished Tuesday night by John Melican, a saloon keeper at Ewing and Laclede avenues, after Dowdall had surrendered to the police, and had been held, charged with choking his former mother-in-law, Mrs. John Conroy, in her home, 3625 Laclede avenue.

Mrs. De Lanney, who is a sister of Dowdall's former wife, went to the front door when Dowdall rang the bell at the Russell avenue house, at 6:30 a. m. Wednesday. He pushed past her, and had gotten as far as the rear parlor, pistol in hand, when De Lanney appeared in his night clothes.

Hit Dowdall With Pistol.

"Now, don't you start anything," he says Dowdall exclaimed.

De Lanney, who always has a pistal near his bed, had grabbed it. He struck the former police sergeant a smashing blow with it on the nose, and Dowdall fell over back. Then DeLanney fired at him, the bullet barely missing him and imbedding itself in a mantelpiece.

"If you didn't have that pistol, I'd show you something," De Lanney says Dowdall called at him from the front yard.

De Lanney thereupon threw his own pistol on the hall floor and went after Dowdall. Dowdall's friends, who had driven to the house with him and who had come to the front door and called on the men to stop fighting, had retreated to the carriage.

De Lanney measured his chances and counted on Masterson to keep the other man off. He plunged at Dowdall, who drew a second pistol and fired three times, all the bullets going wide.

After a struggle on the grass, De Lanney took this second weapon from Dowdall, gave him a beating with it over the head, and then allowed him to jump into the carriage and drive away.

Dowdall's companion made no move to alight from the rig a second time.

The Dowdall child, a girl of 3 years, named Katherine, was not in the De Lanney house, says De Lanney, and he and Masterson say they do not know where she is.

Had Policeman on Watch.

Following the attack on Mrs. Conroy Tuesday afternoon, De Lanney has feared Dowdall would go to his home, and Policeman Edward Doyle watched it all night long, going off duty at 5:30 a. m. It was one hour later that Dowdall appeared.

It was 4:30 p. m. Tuesday that Dowdall visited Mrs. Conroy's home. Mrs. Dowdall, Mrs. Conroy's daughter, obtained a divorce two years ago, with possession of their child, although Dowdall was to have it two days each month. She alleges he took the child Aug. 21 to his home, 753 Walton avenue, and did not return it. Mrs. Dowdall went to her former husband's house Tuesday morning and got the little girl.

Mrs. Conroy's story is that she and Margaret Pickett, aged 11, were in the kitchen of Mrs. Conroy's home when Dowdall entered, choked Mrs. Conroy because she would not tell where his daughter was and then attacked the Conroy brothers, Eugene and Vincent. She says he pointed a revolver at the Pickett girl and threatened to kill Mrs. Conroy.

POLISH BURNS HOUSE CAT.

He Won't Stay in Kitchen Since X-Ray Brand Was Introduced.

To illustrate the quality of the new X-ray stove polish the company making it advises housewives to introduce the brand by degrees, otherwise their house cats may fall victims as did the one in the following story:

"Our Tom, a maltese house cat and a fighter, entered the house one bright forenoon and walked past the kitchen stove. To his astonishment he discovered that another cat had the boldness to enter his stamping ground and was as ready to enter into a combat as he. He plunged into his adversary and after poor Tom had burned his paws and upset a dish of hot fat, he finally turned a double somersault backward out of the kitchen. Tom has now transferred his domicile to the woodshed and no amount of coaxing can get him back into the kitchen."

Schoolboy Stabbed in Fight.

A schoolboy fight on Chouteau avenue near Jefferson led to the stabbing of 12-year-old Eddie Shaughnessy of 2726 Chouteau avenue. Edward Johnson, aged 12, a negro, is locked up at the Soulard Street Station and is charged with the stabbing. Eddie Shaughnessy is not seriously injured.

Doorbells Will Ring On.

When Councilman Rolfes' bill, forbidding the ringing of doorbells in St. Louis by book agents, peddlers and other sometimes unwelcome guests, came up for second reading at Tuesday's Council meeting, Rolfes himself moved that the measure be filed. This kills the measure. "I have come to the conclusion that the measure is too sweeping," he said in explaining his motion. "It would be impossible to separate the worthy from the unworthy, and so I have decided to keep my hands off the bell-ringers entirely."

Clayton Has Snake-Killing.

The northern part of Clayton, known as the Hemis subdivision, is having a snake scare. Within the past two days more than twenty reptiles of varying size have been killed. Recently the underbrush on the east side of Hanley road was burned, and it is believed that the snakes were driven out of this tract, which has an area of about fifty acres, by the fire.

Negro Who Stole Tobacco From Wharfboat Fired On.

After being chased more than six blocks and being fired at by two policemen, a negro known as "Cocaine," who stole a 12-pound box of tobacco from the Tennessee River wharfboat, escaped by taking refuge in a dark cellar at Market street and the Levee.

The negro dropped the tobacco and his coat when Policeman Murphy fired, as he was dodging between box cars. As he crawled under a coach and ran south on the Levee, Policeman Schleifstein fired again, and he was seen to dive into the cellar. The policeman remained there until the place was closed, but the fugitive escaped.

St. Louis Presbytery Holds a Business Meeting.

The business meeting of the St. Louis Presbytery was opened in Winnebago Church, Winnebago and Tennessee avenues, Wednesday by the Rev. Dr. J. G. Kessler, moderator. The principal question to be discussed is the report of the Synodical Committee on Presbyterial Bounderies. The various pastors and two delegates from each church will have a voice in the session, which will continue through Thursday.

The session was opened Tuesday night with an address by Rev. Dr. J. H. Gauss of the Carondelet Church.

NEIGHBORS IN FIGHT.

Woman Aged 60 Says Another Attacked Her.

Mrs. Margaret Birmingham, 60 years old, appeared before Justice Barron at Webster Groves Tuesday and complained that she was recently attacked by Mrs. Mary Boland, her neighbor, and so beaten and bruised that she was confined to her bed under the care of a physician for several days. The justice will apply to Prosecuting Attorney Johnston for a warrant charging Mrs. Boland with assault.

Mrs. Birmingham said that she was waiting near her home north of Webster Groves for a car when Mrs. Boland attacked her. There had been trouble between them before, she said, and the attack was the result of the former trouble. Mrs. Birmingham was knocked down and so injured that she had to be taken home.

1000 PERSONS DEAD, TYPHOON LOSS MILLIONS

Terrific Storm Strews Hong Kong Harbor and City With Wreckage.

BODIES FOUND IN DEBRIS

37 Foreign Vessels Sunk or Stranded—Half Native Craft Destroyed.

EXPORT TRADE HALTED

Military Headquarters and Many Leading Buildings Razed by Waves.

By the Associated Press.

MANILA, Sept. 19.—Latest advices from Hongkong state that 1000 lives were lost during the typhoon and the damage to property, public and private, will amount to millions of dollars.

Twelve ships were sunk, 24 were stranded, seven were damaged, and one-half of the native craft in port were sunk.

The shipping trade has been paralyzed through lack of lighters.

Heavy Loss in Shipping.

The storm came up with great suddenness yesterday afternoon and raged fiercely more than two hours. The harbor is strewn with wreckage and the streets are blocked with debris. Bodies of the dead are being extricated from the collapsed buildings.

Most of the damage done was wrought on the Kowloon Peninsula.

Over one thousand sampans and junks are missing from Hong Kong alone. Wharves were swept away and houses collapsed. The military barracks are in ruins.

The steamer Monteagle, Fatshan, Keung Shan, Wing Chai, Hermania Castellano, Tak Hing, Emmyluken, Lava, Pakhong, Petrarch, Chum Lee, Sexta Sunon, Chang Sa, National Chinkai Maru are ashore.

The American ship S. P. Hitchcock was also driven ashore, as were many of the launches that run about the harbor.

The steamers Kwong Chow, San Chewng, Sorsogon and Kong Moon were sunk.

The steamers Apenrade and Johanne are partly awash. British sloopship Phoenix and a small gunboat, the Dongola, are ashore. The British torpedo boat destroyers Moorhen, Robin and Taku were damaged. Sir William Jervis was sunk. The French torpedo boat destroyer Froude was wrecked and the Francisque is ashore. The guns of the Froude were saved, but three petty officers and one seaman lost their lives.

A Chinese revenue cruiser is ashore and several Indo-China and Manila liners narrowly escaped disaster.

Many Chinese Drowned.

The harbor is strewn with wreckage thrown upon the shore. Hundreds of Chinese boatmen and their families were saved by the bravery of the police and civilians, but several thousand of the Chinese water dwellers may have perished, many within short distances of the shore.

The losses in lives and property among the Chinese were appalling.

Today the police stations in Hong Kong are surrounded by Chinese identifying their dead.

The families of the Hong Kong boatmen live night and day on the sampans and thousands of these people are now homeless. The Chinese take the disaster calmly and show no manifestations of grief. One launch that was capsized had 130 Chinese on board. They were all drowned.

The river steamer Fatshan drifted into collision with the French mail steamer. The entire Chinese crew climbed aboard the French steamer and left Capt. Thomas, who was injured, one officer and the engineers to navigate the Fatshan to Shelter Bay, where she was blown ashore.

Bishop Reported Missing.

The Bishop of Victoria, J. C. Hoare, was on his way to visit some neighboring islands, when the storm broke and is reported missing. His launch has been found floating bottom upwards.

Many valuable steel lighters have been lost. Some of them were hurled ashore.

Channels will have to be dug to permit some of the vessels ashore to be refloated. The force of the wind and waves were such that some vessels were stranded almost high and dry.

The Japanese steamer, Sada Maru, rescued 66 natives and one English pilot as he was approaching Hongkong. The English mail steamers Delhi and Poona escaped damage.

The British cruiser Terrible entered port yesterday afternoon and reported fine weather up to the harbor.

Sir Matthew Nathan, Governor of Hongkong, and the authorities are doing everything possible to render assistance.

Reports of fresh disasters are arriving every hour.

Only a few Europeans are missing.

No reports are on hand to show how the fishing fleets and the ships outside the harbor fared.

One of the World's Great Ports.

Hongkong, the island on which Victoria, the capital city (commonly known as Hongkong), is situated, was ceded to Great Britain in 1843. Its population in 1902 was 285,900, and as a port it has the largest export trade on the globe. Even in point of tonnage it ranks third.

In many respects it is a modern city. It has excellent schools, churches, hospitals and other public institutions. As a British colony on Chinese soil, it plays an important part politically in the Eastern situation, and is military, naval and mercantile headquarters for Great Britain.

The capital city, Victoria, is built on the north side of the bay in crescent shape. The bay is one of the most picturesque spots in the world, owing to the variety of craft that it accommodates. Here can be seen modern ocean-going steamers, war vessels, Chinese junks, Malay praus and merchantmen of all descriptions riding at anchor in the harbor or arriving and clearing from port.

A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest helpmate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ainsley

To be such a successful wife, to retain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, dark shadows appear under her eyes, she has backache, headaches, nervousness or the blues, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals, and half my time was spent in bed.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ainsley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ainsley it will do for every sick and ailing woman.

If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

KIDNAPED BOY A WAIF THEY FREED?

Description Tallies With Child Chicago Police Found Then Released.

CHICAGO, Sept. 19.—Relatives of Cecil A. Brittain, 5 years of age, who was kidnaped July 15, near his parents' summer home at Toll Gate, Ore., asked the Chicago police yesterday to aid in the search for the missing boy.

The boy's father, R. L. Brittain, a wealthy merchant of Walla Walla, Wash., has offered a reward of $1000 for the return of his son. It is believed that the kidnaper is holding the boy to secure ransom money.

A boy answering the description of Cecil Brittain was picked up recently by the police and the following day a man who said he was the boy's father took him to Salt Lake, Utah.

MUCH CHEAPER.

Grape-Nuts Accomplished What Ocean Travel and Medicine Could Not.

It's not what you eat, but what you digest that gives strength.

Many a man drags around year after year half dead, because his food is not digested and he takes first one kind of medicine and then another without relief—because medicines cannot take the place of well digested food, and never will.

Give nature a fair chance, as a prominent German-American of Chicago did, and if you're in a bad fix from stomach trouble, read what he says and try it on.

"About a year ago," he writes, "I was afflicted with stomach trouble which so enfeebled me I had to quit work. I grew so lean I was merely skin and bones.

"I had the advice of six different doctors and two college professors. One thought I had cancer of the stomach, another advised a change of climate, and recommended ocean travel. I decided to follow this last and went abroad for three months.

"But my health became worse and worse. The least amount of food caused me awful pain, and I obtained relief only by having my stomach pumped out.

"Nothing did me any good. Soon I could take no food at all except strained oat meal; then a time came when I could not even take that. I lost courage and prepared myself to die. At that time my wife brought me a package of Grape-Nuts, but I had no confidence in anything any longer.

"She finally persuaded me to taste a few spoonfuls of the new food and to my surprise I retained it and had no distress. That made me feel fine and encouraged to make another trial for life. For several months I ate nothing else—every day a bowl of Grape-Nuts with cream, and thus I regained my health, my old-time weight and am now as well as ever. I could not live without Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

U. S. TO RUSH 300 MARINES TO SANTO DOMINGO

Southerland Cables Secretary That Uprising at Monte Christi Is Imminent.

WANTS DIXIE RETURNED

Former Flagship Will Not Leave Cienfuegos Until Arrival of Another.

400 TROOPS ON MARCH

Government Forces Being Concentrated to Put Down the Threatened Revolution.

By Wire From the Washington Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—Another revolution in Santo Domingo is imminent and the Navy Department is now preparing to send 300 marines there to replace those on the cruiser Dixie which were detached from Commander Southerland's squadron and sent to Cuba.

Commander Southerland cabled the Secretary of the Navy that the situation at Monte Christi is grave and that an uprising may take place there at any moment. He notified the department that under these conditions it is inadvisable to withdraw any of the naval vessels on duty there.

He also requests the Secretary of the Navy to return the Dixie with 300 marines now at Cienfuegos, Cuba, protecting American property. The cable between Puerto Plata and Monte Christi has been severed. Commander Southerland notified the Secretary of the Navy that the first installment of 400 men of the Santo Dominican Government troops would reach Monte Christi today to be used in putting down the revolution.

Secretary Bonaparte stated that the Dixie would not be withdrawn from Cienfuegos until another warship arrives there to relieve it.

To Send 300 Marines.

The marines on the Dixie will remain in Cuba and 300 other marines for service in Santo Domingan waters will be sent from the United States or withdrawn from the vessels now in Cuban waters or on their way there.

The Dixie is the flagship of Commander Southerland and when it was ordered to Havana with the 300 marines it was expected that Commander Southerland would go with his vessel, transfer the marines and return to his station off the Santo Domingan coast with the Dixie. But the critical situation in Santo Domingo would not permit Commander Southerland to go to Havana and he transferred his flag to the Scorpion. Since that time the Dixie has been transferred to Cienfuegos.

One reason that Commander Southerland is anxious to have his vessel returned is that all the official papers of the squadron are on the Dixie, together with the personal effects of the Commander. He needs the marines badly owing to the critical situation that has developed at Monte Christi. The Dixie will remain at Cienfuegos until it is relieved by the Tacoma, Cleveland, Minneapolis or Newark, all of which vessels are now on their way to Cuba.

HINDUS AT HARVARD

Pure Blooded Foreigners Arrive In Native Dress.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Sept. 19.—Arrayed in their flowing robes and high white turbans, Amar Singh and Gopal Singh, his cousin, both pure blooded Hindus, arrived at Harvard today and registered as students in the Harvard graduate school. They are the first full blooded native Hindus who have ever attended Harvard.

Both Amar and Gopal have studied at Punjab University in India. Their masters at that place suggested Harvard to them as the best place in which to study English and carry on the studies that they wished to pursue. The East Indians will spend three or four years at Harvard, Amar devoting himself to the study of the theory and practice of education and Gopal to the sciences, geology and mineralology in particular. After completing this course of study they will return to India and teach there.

THE CUBAN SITUATION.

The situation in Cuba has so far explained itself that its most important facts appear, regardless of what is said from day to day on one side or the other.

The Palma administration represents "American interests" rather than local self-government for the islands. It was indirectly imposed on the islands by American interests. It has outraged the Liberal party of Cuba as a whole and its treatment of the leaders of the party has been despotic.

The Liberal party, representing, in theory, the right of local self-government for the island, and wishing to establish it, has allowed itself to be forced into a position where its course may result in much greater danger to Cuba than anything already done or likely to be done by the Palma administration.

Resort to violence puts the energies of the Liberal party at the disposal of annexationists in and out of the island. Since the insurrection began, the Liberal party figures practically as the catspaw of the annexationists. Violence they promote, the outrages they may secretly incite are charged against the Liberal party and are added to the total of the arguments for the armed occupation by the United States which annexationists seek to force by inciting violent and continuous disturbance in the island.

Whatever the wrongs of the Liberal party, it was at once their safest policy and their duty to the principles they represent to recognize the de facto government. They had no greater grievance against it than existed against the de facto government of the United States inaugurated by the election of 1876. They owed Cuba unsurrendering but peaceable opposition to usurpation through fraud. Their highest duty was to keep the peace.

If the United States intervene under the Platt amendment, the administration which does it must either support the de facto government of the island or else set up a provisional American military government, under which no faction of the Cubans will share in the control of the island.

This latter alternative annexationists are now attempting to force. Under either alternative, the Liberal leaders become catspaws of annexation, forcing inevitable defeat for themselves whenever they allowed the principles they represent to be used in armed revolt against a de facto government. They have shown themselves short sighted in the gravest emergency which has risen in the history of the young republic.

In spite of folly and crime in Cuba, in spite of those criminally minded "interests" in the United States which incite it, our plain and only duty under the Platt amendment is to make no use of the power given by the amendment except to maintain and perpetuate the Cuban republic.

Chicago will surely repudiate the school census that shows her population to be only 1,780,506. But, perhaps it all comes of the tendency to small families.

THE "DOG CUTTER."

Certain cars entered for the automobile road race on Long Island for the Vanderbilt cup are to be equipped with the "dog cutter."

The cutter is attached to the cross steering rod. It is V-shaped and has a keen edge. Its purpose is to protect a flying racer from the shock of collision with any dog, sheep or pig that may stray upon the course. The effect calculated upon is that the animal getting in the way will be cleft in two and swept aside in halves without impeding the machine.

In the Bennet cup race in France last year the cutter is said to have demonstrated its efficiency upon a sheep. But just suppose the "trespassser" upon the public highway should be not a sheep but a child.

Is truth so near the top of Kirkwood wells that she may now legislate against lying?

SHOCKED MR. STEAD.

For the first time in his life Mr. William T. Stead visited a London music hall last week.

"Drivel for the dregs," is his comment cabled to the Sunday Post-Dispatch. He was bored rather than disgusted. Then he became indignant. "It seemed intolerable," he goes on, "that in Anno Domini, 1906, the heirs of thousands of years of civilization should relish this inane drivel. It was not immorality that roused me so much as the imbecility."

The heirs of civilization, as Mr. Stead knows when he remembers his history, do not always care to enter upon their inheritance. The people of England and America, that is, a considerable number of them, prefer the meaningless twaddle of the music halls and the melodramatic stage to the genius of Shakspeare. This twaddle, however, is for the most part not positively vicious. It has not vigor enough to be wicked. For this, at least, we may give thanks.

It is a shock to be brought face to face, as Mr. Stead was, with this paradox of history. Why is it that the descendants of the people who loved Shakspeare are now content with drivel. Progress is not verified by this fact.

The same story was rehearsed in Rome, in the days of Cicero and Caesar. The Romans had the Greek drama of Aeschylus, Sophocles and Euripides. But they cared not at all for it. Instead, they filled the theater stage with wild beasts and gladiators and were delighted with the cruel sport which consisted in elephant killing, tiger killing and man killing. Cicero, Caesar and some other of the better sort did not care for the spectacles, but they made no protest. To them it was drivel for the dregs, but "my masters," the people, liked it hugely.

We have made progress, no doubt. We have railroads, telegraphs, telephones and a thousand and one conveniences of life, utilities for material comfort. But ethically are we better than the attic charcoal burner who grumbled when the herald brought on a play by a minor poet when he had paid his money to see Aeschylus. Are we superior intellectually to the people who applauded the first production of Hamlet and thirsted for repeated performances of "As You Like It?"

We have made progress, forward, yes. But upward? There is a doubt.

The raging storm and the unsettled condition of the country makes it extremely difficult to verify statements concerning the loss of life in the Cimarron river disaster on the Rock Island Railroad. The Associated Press bulletin which appeared in the Post-Dispatch Tuesday, stating that only six of 150 persons on the train survived the terrible plunge of the cars into the water was based upon information supplied by the railroad officials. Subsequently it was learned that many of those believed to be lost reached the shore and were rescued down the river. At this writing the number of dead is in doubt, but strenuous efforts are making to obtain a complete list, which train officials think will be impossible until the subsidence of the water permits an inspection of the cars in the river. Fortunately the loss of life is known to be much less than the first information supplied by the usually accurate Associated Press indicated.

THE INGENUOUS MR. SELPH.

Announcing his candidacy for the congressional nomination in the Twelfth District, Colin M. Selph reverses Henry Clay's saying, "I would rather be right than be President." Mr. Selph's version is, "I would rather be wrong than be Congressman." That is in effect what he means when he says: "If I have to disavow my friendship for Mr. Butler I do not desire the nomination."

Such devotion as this should not be penalized by an enforced separation from the object of adoration. Mr. Selph should be rewarded with permission to remain a Butler man in the haunts of the Butler clan, where he can see and touch his political master and hear his master's voice.

But Mr. Selph offers another convincing reason for permission to stay at home and run the Butler Club. He confesses his incompetence for what he calls the congressional "job." He frankly admits that he is not an authority on national issues and cannot discuss them. Mr. Selph expects to find his field of usefulness in running around the departments getting good things for his constituents, and for the present is "content to let the big men, like Mr. Bryan, Gov. Folk and Mr. Hearst discuss these (national, legislative, etc.) issues." "But," he adds ingenuously, "I hope I may sometime become a big enough man to do so."

Would it not be wise to let Mr. Selph become "big enough" for the "job" before giving it to him? It would be pleasanter for him as well as more profitable for the city of St. Louis. Even Col. Butler, who has plenty of sense, including a sense of humor, must see the pity of sending this young hopeful to Congress.

Secretary Taft, sitting on Cuba, might at the same time extinguish a number of presidential booms.

A LESSON IN EXPANSION.

In an address at Budapest on Sept. 16, the Vice-President of the Hungarian Chamber of Deputies, Herr Rakovsky, thanks America for giving Hungary its national spirit, as an inspiration which passed first from Washington to Kossuth and from Kossuth to the Hungarian people.

The occasion for this acknowledgment was the unveiling of a statue of Washington in the principal park of the city, in the presence of what cable dispatches describe as "the entire population." The city was decorated with Hungarian and American flags, preachers made the event a text and Budapest rejoiced that the time had come when the statue of the first among the founders of the greatest modern republic could find welcome in one of the leading cities of the most conservative of European monarchies.

It is not easy to exaggerate the significance of such an event, but if we take Herr Rakovsky at his word, Washington has already in Hungary a nobler monument than any statue. It is the modern city of Budapest itself.

Since the time of Kossuth, under the inspiration of the spirit of Hungarian progress he represented, the city has grown not only in population, but in everything which shows an increasing regard for the comfort and welfare of men and women as something infinitely greater and more important than mere "population." It is now one of the most beautiful and progressive cities of Europe. When Hungarians themselves thank Washington for this progress, it is an object lesson in the meaning of the only true "expansion" of the only genuine Americanism.

Secretary Shaw is for "right and justice." What right and justice is there in compelling Americans to pay more for American articles than foreigners are asked?

The appearance of the Kentucky militia in Kentucky's chief city to enforce a lid law would once more astound the nations.

The Democracy seems not to know what Democracy is. Until this is settled there is little use asking doubters to embrace it.

IN BUTLER'S SHOES?

JUST A MINUTE

With Post-Dispatch Poets and Humorists

TWO NATURE LOVERS.

"The fairest thing in life," she said,
"Is such a day as this,
When Autumn and sweet Summer wed
And go their way of bliss.
When Autumn throws his soft, grey shawl
About his sweet young wife,
And holds her in its filmy thrall—
The fairest thing in life."

"The fairest thing in life," he said,
"Is such a girl as you,
With soft eyes in her pretty head
To match the skies of blue,
For you to see the tint and hue
Of Autumn's charms run rife,
For me it is to see but you—
The fairest thing in life."

WATCH CHURCHILL.

The railroad combine has defeated Winston Churchill for the Republican nomination for Governor of New Hampshire. All the same, the novelist will be the next Governor. There was a bad half hour in the office of the MacMillans when they got the news. There were executive sessions, and the cashier and the firm's banker were called in.

Mr. Churchill will run anyway, as an independent. He will be elected. He is young yet, and his publishers may reasonably count upon him for about twenty more novels. Any old day when they will permit him to become discredited! As a private citizen he enjoyed tremendous sales of "The Crisis," "The Crossing," "Richard Carvel" and "Coniston." As a Governor or something of that sort he could double his sales. In the end he may even be President, and Mr. Roosevelt's incidental literary career has shown us the possibilities of that. The fight in New Hampshire is the Boston & Maine Railroad against the MacMillans. They will both spend money like water, and when the smoke of battle lifts Mr. Churchill will be elected and the Boston & Maine Railroad will look like a toy engine slain by a rocking chair.

The announcement is made from Paris that tenors are dying out. Provident Nature is proceeding against the musical comedy in her own methodical way.

TOO LONG.

Bill: What did you think of "Forty-Five Minutes from Broadway?"

Bored: I rather made up my mind that Cohan didn't leave Broadway that long when he wrote it.

SIGHING FOR KIRKWOOD.

I want to live in Kirkwood,
In sweet, bucolic Kirkwood
In truth-compelling Kirkwood
Where you cannot tell a lie.
I want to hold a hatchet,
And possess a tongue to match it,
And pursue the truth and catch it
And to speak it till I die.

I want to live where lying
Is so very law-defying
The people all are trying
To speak always by the clock.
I want to cut a cherry,
And disdain with truth to parry,
And be honorable, very,
And the father of my block.

I want to be veracious
And of truth uncontumacious,
And the city so mendacious
Quit for better things, forsooth.
I want to put the copper
On the man who tells a whopper,
And I want to have an opportunity to tell the truth.

ST. LOUIS THROUGH FUNNY GLASSES

WRITTEN FOR THE POST-DISPATCH

By Irvin S. Cobb.

Where One High Hat Beats Two Pair of Socks.

THIS is the town where it is better to have a tasty front and no backing at all than to have plenty of backing and a sad front. One brace of patent leather shoes is worth eight suits of warm underclothes for display purposes in this town. Rather a high hat than an extra pair of socks.

We are strong for the loud cry and the doubled-in-brass. Providing the side-show banners were sufficiently attractive we never get peevish and demand our money back if we find Bosco eating dead angle-worms instead of live anacondas.

We have no use for the modest-blushing violet in our business. The national flower of St. Louis is the fromage de Brie. For truly do we live in the real home of the Ballyhoo.

We drop into a proper food foundry at the crowded hour and ask if we can get a beefsteak and a pot of coffee right off the reel, being both weak and famished. The superior gentleman who has been assigned to wait on us assures us in his polished way that we certainly can. He bestows a glass of water and a couple of rolls, as an evidence of good faith, after which he retires into executive session behind a screen and lays the proposition before the board of governors, and when the head cook has opened the session with a prayer a vote is taken, and if no blackballs are cast against us they go out and kill a cow and scalp our beefsteak off her. And not off the gentler side of her nature at that!

When the food finally comes to us we've forgotten whether it was ordered for breakfast or dinner. Anyway, by now we are gorged on rolls and ice-water, and, besides, the steak is as cold and hard as the heart of a cabman, which is the hardest, coldest thing known to civilized man, and the coffee is as bitter as a lost soul, and as full of suspicious grounds as a modern divorce petition.

But we raise no voice in protest. For any shortcomings on the part of the cuisine there is ample atonement in the fact that for several long conspicuous hours we have been permitted to sit, dressed in our cheeriest regalia, in an establishment which is provided with a marble front stoop and a check boy having more brass buttons on him than there are warts on a frog.

Also it is worth a good deal to be allowed to loll back in luxurious ease while the waiter hands us one of those half-shell finger-bowls and an antiseptic toothpick encased in a cute sterilized nightie of white tissue paper.

THE FUNNY PART:

St. Louis is the only place where shining brass beats dull gold as a circulating medium.

THE PEOPLE'S LOBBY

By Clark McAdams.

(The people's lobby is the newest thing in reform. It has been organized by Alfred Henry Lewis, and will be on hand when the Fifty-Ninth Congress resumes in December.—News).

I.

O, why should the spirit of mortal be bowed, and why should we pine with despair?
And why should the bravest be wailing aloud and pulling out wisps of their hair?
The tables are turned, and the gonfalon waves, the drums have come down from the shelves—
The people have learned a few things from the knaves, and they'll lobby a little themselves.
We're going to do things in the way of a trust, and war on the Devil with fire;
We're going to pull strings in the way that we must, and get on the underground wire;
We'll cut a few pies in the dark o' the night, and we'll see that the lawmakers dine,
And we'll cultivate ties to the growth of our might and argue with boodle and wine.

II.

O, why should the eagle be sick with the pip, and why should the muck raker hide?
And why should the people be down in the lip, and hope with grim sorrow abide?
The spirit of Mars is breathed into the worm, the challenging trumpet is blown,
And we're off to the wars in the forthcoming term, with lobbyists now of our own.
We're going to wake up and get into the game, and capture a session or two;
We're going to make up with the boys just the same as the favorite interests do.
We're going to make hay in the only known way, and do as Rome does when in Rome,
And conscience for once, for these practical stunts, we'll leave with the loved ones at home.

COL. TODHUNTER

The Rum-Loving and Dadfrazzling Missourian by Adoption Unveils His Intention to Be First Man In and Last Man Out at the Veiled Prophet's Ball.

By Ripley D. Saunders.

"WELL, suh," said Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter buoyantly, "I've been elbowing my way around in the political push so strenuously enduring of these last few weeks that the social prospect opened up by the approach of the Veiled Prophet's ball looks as welcome and refreshing to me as an oasis to a sand-baked Bedouin in the great Sahara Desert, suh.

"I want to serve notice right now, suh, that I'll be on hand at the Veiled Prophet's ball as gaily, suh, as a young colt making its first long-legged kicks in a bluegrass pasture, suh. I ain't saying whether or not I'll be on any of the floats in the big parade, suh—though if you should see anything that reminds you of Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter as a feature of that magnificent pageant you're welcome to draw your own conclusions—but I do say, emphatically and without reservation that I'll be at the ball, the Good Marster willing.

"And, suh, even though I did come to grief in that dad-blamed new-fangled two-step sort of a fandango at the D. O. C. ball last winter, suh, I'm just game enough to shake a leg again at the Veiled Prophet's—and I'm a-going to do it in Old Kentucky's best style, suh. 'On with the dance,' as the poet says, suh, 'let joy be unconfined; no rest till morn, when Youth and Beauty meet, to chase the glowing hours with flying feet'—and while I may not stack up as big a pile of blue chips under the head of Youth and Beauty, suh, I'll be there with the 'flying feet' part, all right. You can just stick a pin in that and keep tab on my words, suh.

"Furthermore, suh, while I don't believe in a man telling of the great things he's going to do before he does 'em, I don't mind saying right here and now that if things shape out the way I'm counting on I'll set a pace to the fiddlers' music that these here young St. Louis society chaps will find it hard to follow. The only thing I ask, suh, is that there's some snug spot in the immediate neighborhood where I can get an occasional mint julep or old-fashioned toddy with which to refresh my soul, suh—and if that's the case the people at that ball are going to see the sort of dancing that you read about, suh. Col. Thurs. T. Todhunter ain't no spring chicken, and he don't pretend to be none, suh, but when his heart is cheered by brilliant company and his joints lubricated with good old Bourbon, I'll be dadfrazzled if he ain't as soople a proposition as ever came down the society pike, suh.

"You just keep your eyes on me at the Veiled Prophet's ball, suh, and see if I don't deliver the goods."

Agreement Among the O'Briens.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Seeing in your issue of tonight "Speaker O'Brien" is to introduce a bill providing for an Inspector of Plasterers. Good for Mr. O'Brien. Now, let all crafts follow. Have inspectors for hod carriers, mortar mixers, rock wheelers, quarrymen, rock drivers and all canners in alleys.

DARBY O'BRIEN.

It Certainly Needs Protection.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

We Americans, the lovers of freedom and individuality; the promoters of science and useful arts; the protectors of the English language; that beautiful language, in which the godlike Milton wrote his "Paradise Lost," in which the noble Shakspeare wrote his "Night's Candles are Burnt Out," and in which the child-loving Longfellow wrote his "Children's Hour," and allow me to name another by Longfellow, "The Ship of State," which all Americans revere. Can we see that beautiful language corrupted, as it were, just to see the business world quickened? Is not the business of this great country progressing and traveling fast enough? If so, let the English language stand as it is as a symbol to the original English-speaking countries of this globe.

Unsanitary Conditions.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

A short time ago I walked through the district partly composed of Ellendale and Greenwood, near the Des Peres. Two or three years ago this was unsettled. Today it is built up and thickly peopled. It apparently has no drainage, and in the low parts the smell was very bad. Yesterday I happened to go past West End Heights, on the side where there is a high hedge of Osage orange trees. I noticed that the drainage from the summer garden flowed into a hollow and stood, a reeking, dangerous pond. Close by, new streets were being opened and lots sold; houses being erected, in close proximity to this nuisance. We shall have plenty of typhoid unless we attend to our drainage.

CITIZEN.

Short Coal Weights.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

How can the small coal consumer protect himself against short weight? I was suspicious regarding my winter's coal. On notifying the concern which sold it to me they sent one of their employes who said, of course, that it was all right. I can refuse to pay, have a lawsuit and spend several times the value of the coal. But what else can I do? There is no city inspector to whom I can appeal, nor can I learn of any private individual or concern which for due financial consideration, makes a business of protecting the consumer. There seems nothing to do but pay the bill, buy coal next year of another firm and perhaps repeat the process. Under the present scheme the consumer is absolutely at the mercy of the dishonest dealer and it is cheaper to submit to being robbed than to try to protect one's self. But the operation is exceedingly disagreeable.

Wedding of Royal Servants.

An interesting wedding recently took place at Sandringham Church. The bridegroom was Charles Henry Jackson, the King's head gamekeeper, and the bride was Mrs. Elizabeth Butler, housekeeper at Sandringham House.

The Prince and Princess of Wales' children were present at the wedding, and so was Princess Victoria, who, with the Hon. Miss L. Knollys, took snapshots of the bride and bridegroom and pelted them with rice as they left the church. The King sent a message of congratulation to the newly married couple, and expressed the wish that much happiness might be in store for them.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson received several handsome presents from the King and Queen and members of the royal families of Denmark and England. Their majesties' gifts were a dinner service, a pearl and diamond pendant, a platinum chain and a diamond scarf-pin. A gold and blue enamel inkstand came from the Princess Victoria, a silver sugar castor from Prince Nicholas of Greece, and a diamond brooch from his charming consort.

ANSWERS to Post-Dispatch READERS

RULES—One question; one initial. No business addresses given. No bets. Only simple legal questions. Address "Answers," Post-Dispatch; postal cards if convenient.

W. E.—Ask in art stores.

TRIX.—Mon Dieu, my God.

XXX.—Shooting on Sunday, $50 fine.

F. B.—Exposition opened Sept. 3, 1884.

SUB.—Emoc ni ereh is "come in here."

X. Y. Z.—List of hardware journals, Public Library.

N. J.—Gov. Jackson died in 1862. Gen. Sterling Price died Sept. 29, 1867.

M. C.—Teacher must graduate from Central High School and Teachers' College.

E. F.—Any small stream of running water for crawfish. Take a little dipnet.

H. P. H.—No clause in the Constitution forbids the President to leave the United States.

W. V. D.—In justice to regular readers, we cannot always be repeating answers already given 500 times.

E. R. K.—Write to your Congressman for full information in regard to page in House of Representatives.

L. L. R.—Ask at Civil Service headquarters, old Postoffice, Third and Olive, about Panama employment.

ANX.—Walter Edwards is married. He will be with Forepaugh Stock Company, Cincinnati, next winter.

DUNCY.—After a dance the young man may thank the young woman, but isn't necessary if he is a good dancer.

J. N.—The letters on your coins are merely the initial of the name of the mint at which they are made and do not add to their value.

F.—Iron rust: Soak stain with lemon juice and salt, then bleach several times in sun. This is a slow process, but not destructive to cloth.

SIGNAL.—A week may be necessary for an answer. Some questions are not answered. Many are not answered because the answer has already been given.

FRIEDRICHS.—The Postoffice still informs us that leather postal cards carrying writing require 2 cents postage. You can fight it out with the Inquiry Division.

MISS JAY.—If you find no way to get introduction, there would be no harm in writing the young lady. She may then decide for herself whether acquaintance would be desirable.

MILLER.—Sack of Portland cement, 90 pounds. Concrete for foundation work, 2½ parts sand, 1 part cement, 5 parts broken limestone. Two sacks cement will make 13½ cubic feet of concrete.

SEARCHLIGHT.—It is only the moral searchlights that works night and day. The police have searchlights that they can turn on in dark places during the day. There is no use for a big searchlight when the sun is shining.

VANGE.—Remove catarrh to improve breath. Eat less meat, butter, ham, sugar and white flour. Eat more fruit—not jellies and preserves; drink more water; breathe more pure air; take more exercise; have enough rest and sleep, and be active mentally.

D. P.—Pound cake: Cream a pound of butter with one of sugar, add yolks of pound of eggs in tablespoon of brandy and half teaspoon of mace. Now put in the stiffened egg whites alternately with a scant pound of flour. Bake in brick tin, covering with paper for first 15 or 20 minutes.

C. C. P.—Varnish and paint: If the stain is on a coarse fabric, dissolve by saturating with turpentine; use alcohol if on a fine fabric. Sponge with chloroform if a dark ring is left by the turpentine. Be careful about using chloroform or turpentine near fire or artificial light.

SOCIETY GIRL.—We do not think superfluous hair is caused by cistern water germs or any other other. Some think soaps made from fats produce it. Many a foolish young man would like to know how to produce it on his upper lip. He would take to cistern water and soap at once.

READER.—A physician says: "To soften and whiten the skin there is nothing so beneficial as oatmeal, used externally. After a warm bath it may be used dry, or pour boiling water over a few spoonsful of it and let stand a few hours. On going to bed, wash the hands and face freely with the starchy water, and dry without wiping. Bran and Indian meal may be used instead, with nearly the same effect. For the full bath put the bran or oatmeal into small bags, otherwise, the difficulty of removing the particles which adhere to the skin is considerable."

WILFORD.—Mushroom catsup: Break mushrooms into pieces and put into crock in alternate layers, with salt sprinkled over each layer. Cover crock and put in cellar, stirring contents three times a day three days. Now warm mushrooms, mash to pulp and strain through coarse netting, squeezing to extract all juice. Put juice on range and boil ten minutes, then measure. To each pint of juice allow teaspoonful each of whole peppers and allspice, a blade of mace, two slices onion, a bay leaf and a dash of paprika. Put all over fire and boil until thick. Strain, cool and fill bottles. Seal tightly.

GIRL RUNAWAY DIES; POLICE SEEK EMPLOYER

Agnes Felix Was Found in Shed Where She Said She Was Clerk.

LEFT HOME MONTH AGO

She Went With Other Girls, Expecting to Find a Care-Free Existence.

FRIEND OF COAL DEALER

Neighbors Tell of Frequent Visits to Man Three Times Her Age.

Agnes Felix is dead. Just one month from the time the 15-year-old girl ran away from the home of her mother, Louisa Felix, 1610 North Jefferson avenue, the cruelties of what she fancied was a care-free life, caused her illness that ended when life became extinct at the City Hospital at 6 a. m. Wednesday.

A nurse and physician had been beside the little sufferer through the night. Appendicitis and peritonitis caused the death.

The girl was found by Policeman Collins at 6 p. m. Tuesday in a shed in the rear of 1408 Pine street, where Bill Fritz, a small coal dealer and baggageman slept and had his office. She was unconscious and was taken to the City Hospital. The police are looking for Fritz.

Agnes was pretty. As she grew up with her mother and father she was admired by the neighbors. When her father, Gebhard Felix, died six months ago, Agnes was without his restraining influence. Her mother was affected by her husband's death and subject to heart disease, and she could not take care of the girl as she wanted to.

Life at home became irksome. Other girls wore pretty ribbons and bows. At parties the rustling of their silks spelled envy to Agnes. Why couldn't she leave home, get a position, make a fine salary and dress nicely? The impulse was too strong and she left home.

Too plucky to return home when she learned the hardships she had brought upon herself by her spirit of independence, she would not go back, though more than once she whispered to her girl friends: "I wonder what mother is doing. I would like to see her." Her pride kept here away, struggling and deceiving herself into believing the care-free life she had expected would come some day.

Spent Time on the Streets.

Agnes found how easy it is to drift. She found other young girls, who thought they had the independent spirit, when they were far from it. She lived on Sixteenth street and she and her four or five girl friends, much in the same plight, spent much of their time on the streets of the neighborhood.

The Gayety Theater seemed to charm them. There were finely built pretty women with rouge on their faces, coming from the stage door. How fine they looked! How well they were dressed! The girls knelt at their shrine, for they were actresses, great actresses to them.

Then there were the actors, stylishly dressed. When the actors, departing, dropped a smile or a glance, the girls were thrilled. It seemed they were so much nearer the stage, which, perhaps may have been their goal, or the means that would lead to the fine clothes.

Day by day Agnes' goal was just a little lower. At times she was hungry. She did not have properly prepared foods. The things she ate and drank ultimately caused her illness.

She met Bill Fritz, who sells coal in small quantities and does a small express business. He is 46 years old—thrice the girl's age. He took orders and slept in a one-story, small brick shed abutting on the alley in the rear of 1408 Pine street. Agnes Felix frequented the place. First her excuse for walking through the passageway from Pine street to the shed was that she wanted to leave an order for a trunk. Neighbors noticed her visits were frequent and prolonged.

Then she became Fritz's clerk—that is what she said. She spent her days there and Fritz said he employed her to take orders while he was away.

Mrs. Mary Nickens of 1408 Pine street knew Fritz well.

"Why do you stay about such a couped, unhealthy place?" she asked Agnes one day.

"O, I have a room over on Sixteenth street," she said. "I just stay here in the day time. I take orders for Bill."

Mrs. Nickens had seen other girls at various times about Bill's place. She had her reasons for questioning Agnes, but the girl chose to ignore the good offices of the older woman. That was only a few days ago and death was only a few days off.

"I have known Agnes since she came into this neighborhood," said Mrs. Nickens. "She always seemed neatly dressed, but she never acquired the fine clothes she coveted.

"There are others still alive in her crowd. I wonder if they will profit. I wonder if they will realize before it is too late, how kind a mother is and how their mothers' hearts must be breaking when they do not know where their daughters' footsteps are leading them."

Grieved About Daughter.

Mrs. Felix was in bed, prostrated, at her home on Jefferson avenue, when a Post-Dispatch reporter called at the house, before the girl's death was known.

"Mother is ill," said a married daughter who had just returned from Chicago. "She can't see anybody. She has grieved greatly since her husband's death and Agnes' waywardness has added to her grief.

"We sat at Agnes' bedside until 4 this morning. The doctors told us at midnight she might die at any time, so we remained there, to be with her if she died. At 4 the pulse seemed a little better and the doctor told us she had a chance to recover. He told us we had better go and come again. We left there then and expect to go back."

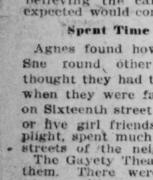

She did not know then that Agnes was dead.

"The doctors were going to operate upon her for appendicitis last night, continued the sister, "but mother wouldn't allow it until a priest could be there. It was 10 o'clock by the time the priest came. Agnes was too weak then to be operated upon, and it was postponed."

Soon after Agnes was taken to the hospital at 6 p. m. Tuesday, Central District policemen began looking for Bill Fritz. He had locked both front and rear doors and could not be found. The police finally forced an entrance and looked through the little hut.

Again in the morning the search for the man who employed the girl as "clerk" was continued, with no success.

To Remove Freckles and Pimples in Ten Days, Use Nadinola

A new discovery, sold under a positive guarantee and money refunded in every case where it fails to remove freckles, pimples, liver-spots, sun-tan, sallowness, collar discolorations, blackheads and all eruptions of the skin, no matter of how long standing. PERKINS SUGGESTS THAT TERMINAL BOARD PLAN RAPID TRANSIT

Municipal Railroad Expert Quotes Experience of New York and Favors Subway Rather Than Elevated in Downtown Districts.

ALBERT T. PERKINS, railroad expert of the Municipal Bridge and Terminal Commission, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter Wednesday that St. Louis should have a rapid transit commission like those of New York and Chicago which could make a systematic investigation of the transit conditions and regulate the building of any subway or elevated road. "St. Louis is a large city," said Mr. Perkins, "and cannot afford to make mistakes in matters of this kind which in future years would be difficult to remedy."

Mr. Perkins said that the Terminal Commission was the first commission that had really taken up the transit conditions here. He suggested that it might be a good idea if the Terminal Commission were simply given the prerogatives of a rapid transit commission.

"At present the surface lines give such excellent service that a more rapid means of transit is not immediately necessary," said he. "But it will certainly be necessary in the next ten years. And as it will take several years to determine the route or routes and the practical features of the lines and several more, perhaps, to find out who is going to finance the scheme, I think it only wise that the city should begin to look into these things immediately. New York appointed its rapid transit commissioners in 1875.

"At future meetings of the Terminal Commission and very soon, it is quite possible that we will discuss the subway and elevated systems as applied to St. Louis. It will remain with the Municipal Assembly, however, to say whether they desire the commission to go into this matter thoroughly.

Against Downtown Elevated.

"I do not think it advisable for the city to build an elevated—that is in the downtown and congested districts. Of course, as in New York and Boston on the outskirts of the city it would perhaps be best for the tracks to come to the surface and run along an elevated. But a downtown elevated is undesirable because of its unsightliness, its noise and the depreciatory effect it has upon realty values in the neighborhood through which it runs.

"I haven't thought very much concerning the route of a subway in St. Louis, but it seems to me that there could be no more desirable street for the subway to run under than Washington avenue. This is a wide street, and consequently the subway could be roomy without interfering with the foundations of the buildings. In New York one of the biggest items in the cost of building the subway was the reinforcing of the foundations of buildings close to the subway tube.

"I don't think it would be necessary at first to build a four-track subway, but I think it should be so arranged that it would be very easy to put in the four tracks. At present and by the time we would have a subway built here, I think the surface lines would be well able to take care of passengers who would want to ride short distances. So at first we would only need trains in the subway which would stop, say every six blocks, or, for instance, at Broadway, then at Twelfth street, Eighteenth street, Jefferson avenue and so on.

Ten Minutes to Grand Avenue.

"Boarding a subway car under Broadway you would reach Grand avenue in 10 minutes, and if it were built out to the city limits you should make Delmar Garden from Broadway in from 25 to 30 minutes.

"My idea of a subway would be a shallow one. I think it should be built from the top, that is lay the street open, put in the tube and then cover the street over again. Tunneling is the most expensive way of building a subway. By building it from the top I think it could be built much cheaper comparatively than the New York subway, which cost about $41,000,000 to build. How much it would cost St. Louis it is impossible to estimate before investigating.

"If the city wants to build the subway it should first make a contract with some company to operate the line under a contract by which the city would receive a percentage of the profit. This percentage should be enough to pay the interest on the bonds the city would be required to issue to build the line, and also to supply a sinking fund which in 30 or 40 years would be big enough to pay off the bonds.

"I do not think the city should operate the subway. My reason is that I do not believe in connecting such an important service as a rapid transit system with politics."

TAX ON SIGNS PROPOSED.

Inspection Fee for Those Projecting Over Street.

A bill to tax all signs projecting more than 18 inches out from the building line was introduced in the Council by Councilman Rolfes at the instance of the Million Club, through Ben Westhus, chairman of the Lighting Committee of the club. The tax on every permanent sign which projects a greater distance than 18 inches will be "4 cents for each square foot of sign space exposed to public view." The tax is imposed as an "inspection fee."

All temporary signs, erected for special purposes and kept in place less than 30 days, are to pay an inspection fee half that charged for permanent signs.

The exact method of erecting signs is prescribed in the ordinance. The Building Commissioner and the Board of Public Improvements are to pass on the plans for their erection and the Supervisor of City Lighting is to pass on and approve their lighting. The whole sign must be constructed so as to have the approval of the Fire Underwriters.

The ordinance provides that every sign erected under the provision of the ordinance shall be illuminated from dusk to 10 p. m.

No sign shall project more than 15 feet, and no sign projecting over five feet shall be over 28 inches wide.

A fine of not less than $50 nor more than $100 is prescribed for each day of violation of the ordinance.

"The Million Club desires to have the ordinance in operation for the Fall Festivities, if possible," said Councilman Rolfes.

BIGAMY CHARGED; WOMEN NEIGHBORS

Maiden Names are Inserted In Doorplate, When They Procure Warrants.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Two young women of Jersey City consigned their wedding rings to the scrap basket, slid their maiden names into the front doorplate, instead of the name Mrs. William G. Hendrickson, and, tucking their marriage certificates into their shopping bags, went to the District Attorney's office and procured a warrant for the arrest of their lone husband.

Hendrickson, a good-looking, well-dressed young man of 21, employed by the Pennsylvania Railroad as freight clerk, was arrested later and committed to the Tombs in default of $1000 bail to await the action of the grand jury.

For more than two years both wives have lived within eight blocks of each other. The first Mrs. Hendrickson, who was Miss Leoni Van Wart, lives at 104 Claremont avenue. The second wife, who was Miss Victoria James, lives at 11 Minerva street. Both young women are now living with their parents.

4 YEARS FOR HORSE THEFT.

Farmers Give Man Who Caught Negro $100.

Jack Holland, a St. Louis County negro, was given a four-year sentence in the Circuit Court in Clayton Wednesday for stealing a horse from a Mrs. Dennis, living on the Columbia Bottom road. The theft was committed last Wednesday night.

Thursday morning Holland brought a horse to Leopold Wohlcemuth, who is in the stock business at 1511 North Broadway. The negro offered to sell the horse for $85. Wohlcemuth was suspicious and offered him $40. This price was accepted and Wohlcemuth said he would pay as soon as the banks opened. Then he got a policeman, who arrested Holland.

Farmers in the county are getting up a purse of $100 for Mr. Wohlcemuth.

SUES BARBER FOR CUT.

Man Tried to "Help" in Shave and Was Slashed.

Whether a man cut by a barber after he has been warned not to persist in trying to help in the shaving process by distorting his face, has a legal cause for damages is a question that Ralph E. Salisbury, a student of Rush Medical College, Chicago, who is visiting friends on Natural Bridge road, declares he will have answered in Justice of the Peace Robert J. Carroll's Court.

"Now, don't go to help; you only hinder," Salisbury says he was admonished by Fred Slossen, a Pine street barber, last Saturday, when Salisbury was getting shaved for Sunday.

"We can always tell when a man's used to shaving himself," he says the barber went on. He always tries to help out the barber by stretching his face the way he does when he is doing his own shaving. But it don't help. It only makes the work harder."

Thus warned, Salisbury says he tried to keep his face straight, but that his skin is tender, and he was sure he could make the razor job easier if he straightened out his chin by putting his lower lip under his upper one when the barber came to the little dent that Nature makes on most chins.

Salisbury has a long gash under his lower lip to remind him of how the razor slipped when he persisted in "helping."

"Its been bothering me ever since," he explained Wednesday. "I don't know what that barber put on to stop the blood, but it only made it worse and everything I have put on since has irritated it."

Salisbury wants $50 damages.

SHIP CARRIES $10,000,000.

Gold Laden Vessel Due at New York Today.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—The Cunard steamer Carmania, which is due to arrive in this port today, may well be called a golden ship. In the strong boxes of the steamer are shipments of gold aggregating $10,000,000. This gold is imported by banks and bankers in view of the recent money stringency here.

Post to Talk on Labor.

C. W. Post of Battle Creek, Mich., and New York, president of the Citizens' Industrial Association of America, will deliver an address on "The Labor Problem," at the first monthly meeting of the Citizens' Industrial Association of St. Louis Thursday evening at the Odeon. James A. Emery of San Francisco is also expected. Following the addresses, Dr. Edward B. McDowell, the traveler, will lecture on "Samoa," the tropical paradise of the South Pacific. He will give original motion pictures, over 40 of which show Samoan dances, canoe races, a war dance, a diving scene of Samoan youths, a children's dance, a processional march, etc.

SHE DOESN'T KNOW WHY SHE TOOK ACID.

MRS. CLARA TAYLOR.

DRINKS BEER AS ANTIDOTE FOR ACID

Woman Says Impulse to Take Life Came to Her on the Street.

After drinking the contents of a bottle of carbolic acid while on her way home Tuesday evening, Mrs. Clara Taylor, wife of John Taylor of 3003 Pine street, says she drank two bottles of beer as an antidote. She was discharged from the City Hospital Wednesday morning.

At the hospital Mrs. Taylor said that she could give no reason for wanting to take her life. She said that Tuesday afternoon with her two children, Dan, 5 years old, and John, 10 months old, she had visited a girl friend named Ferguson at 2257 Chestnut street. She said she left the children at a grocery store at that address and had started home to get some clothing for the baby. On the way, she says, the impulse to end her life came to her.

She says she went into a drug store on Olive street and bought 15 cents' worth of carbolic acid, which she drank. She said she suffered so much that she felt she could not bear the pain. She thought beer might do some good, so she drank two bottles, she says.

She was taken from her home, which is a rooming house conducted by Mrs. Jennie Larimore, at 8 o'clock in the evening and was removed to the hospital in an ambulance.

John Taylor, her husband, is superintendent in charge of the installation of the pneumatic tube service at the Postoffice, and is a tenor singer. He laughed at the idea that his wife had tried to kill herself. He said she was merely "bluffing."

Taylor said that much of the trouble between him and his wife was due to the fact that she objected to his choir singing. He had not visited her at the hospital.

The couple came to St. Louis from Boston two years ago. Mrs. Taylor, her husband says, is 24 and he is 25. She is slender and attractive, with auburn hair and brown eyes.

STOLE TO PAY LAWYER.

Judge Not Convinced Prisoner "Had to" Do It.

William Mueller, tried and sentenced by Judge Moore in the Court of Criminal Correction Wednesday, on a charge of stealing $17 from Carl Reible of 2878 South Seventh street, astonished the Judge by pleading that he had stolen the money for the purpose of employing a lawyer to defend him for disturbing the peace of Reible some time previous.

"Why did you steal the money?" asked the Judge.

"I had to, Your Honor," replied Mueller.

"You had to? Why?" asked Judge Moore.

"I am charged with disturbing the peace of Reible, and I took the money to get a lawyer to defend me."

"Poor excuse," said the Judge; "40 days in the Workhouse."

TWO KILLED BY DYNAMITE.

Shotfirers Blown to Pieces Near Carbondale, Ill.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

CARBONDALE, Ill., Sept. 19.—John Dunsworth and George Peterson, shotfiers in a rock quarry between Tunnel Hill and Bloomfield, were killed by a 70-pound charge of dynamite.

Dunsworth's body was frightfully mangled, death ensuing one hour after the accident, while the body of Peterson was blown to atoms.

Girl Robbed; Thief Escaped.

Miss Anna Shea, 23 years old, cashier in the August Gast Banknote Co., Twenty-first and Morgan streets, reported to the police Wednesday that a man had snatched her pocketbook containing three rings worth $25, as she walked in Twenty-first street, near Lucas avenue, Tuesday afternoon. Three men saw the deed and chased the man as he fled. The chase led to Franklin avenue, and in that thoroughfare to Jefferson avenue, where the pursuers lost sight of the pursued. The thief was white and about five feet eight inches tall. He wore a light fedora hat and was neatly dressed. Miss Shea lives at 3542 Henrietta street.

Save Half Your Money and Get Safe Milk.

THERE are two serious objections to raw cow's milk from the milkman. It is dangerous,—contains Germs,—Souring Germs always, Disease Germs with startling frequency.

No Germ Life in Van Camp's Sterilized Cream.

That's why it "keeps" as long as you please when sealed, and for days in your refrigerator after it is opened.

And the "two-thirds water" in milk is taken out of it in the Van Camp process,—that saves freight and delivery expense.

Only sterile (germless) thick cream or "milk-stock" remains—just the goodness.

See what three cans of Van Camp Sterilized Cream will do.

Two of them with two quarts of water will make 3 quarts of superfine milk worth, at 7 cents a quart, 21 cents.

The remaining one, with a pint or water, will make one quart of rich "cereal" cream worth 40 cents by ordinary standards.

In all that's 61 cents worth as the milkman charges.

But 3 Cans of Van Camp's Sterilized Cream cost less than half that—30 cents, or less if you buy by the case.

Single Cans are 10 cents, a case of 48 Cans $4.40 or about 9 cents each.

You need never wait for milk-man-time with Van Camp's Sterilized Cream in your pantry. Get it today from your grocer.

MONEY OR WALK SAYS COMMISSION

Advertising Cannot Be Accepted for Transportation, Roads Are Notified in New Spelling.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The Interstate Commerce Commission in a circular letter has adopted the reformed style, using the word "thru" in its official reference to joint rates.

The commission make it clear to all railroads that contracts exchanging transportation for advertising must hereafter be discontinued. This carefully drawn statement of opinion makes it clear that nothing but actual money may be received in exchange of the transportation facilities.

"Nothing but money can be lawfully received in payment for transportation subject to the act, whether of passengers or property, or for any service in connection therewith, it being the opinion of the commission that the prohibition against charging or collecting a greater or less or different compensation than the established rates in effect at the time precludes the acceptance of services, property, or other payment in lieu of the amount of the money specified in the published schedules."

In referring to notice of changes in rates the latter says:

"Where two or more connection carriers establish a joint which is less or greater than the sum of their local rates, such joint rate is a change of rates and requires a notice of 30 days. In such a case when such a joint when duly established and in force becomes the only lawful rate for thru transportation."

HEARST'S FATE IN SULLIVANS' HANDS

Possesses Enough Power to Throw Buffalo Nomination Either Way.

SULZER SECOND CHOICE

If the First Ballot Fails a Combined Vote Will Be Cast.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—Mayor McClellan carried four and Charles F. Murphy seven of the eleven contested districts for the Tammany district leadership yesterday. The result of the primary leaves the control of the Executive Committee as follows:

Murphy, 15½ votes.
Sullivan, 8½ votes.
McClellan, 11 votes.

The balance of power is thus thrown into the hands of the Sullivans and they will decide whether or not Tammany's vote at Buffalo will be cast for William R. Hearst.

The statement given out by Fire Commissioner O'Brien that the Sullivans had promised to oppose Hearst at Buffalo indicates that Tammany's 105 votes in the convention cannot be delivered by Boss Murphy to Mr. Hearst.

The plan of Mayor McClellan and the Sullivan leaders is to refuse to attend a caucus and thus each delegation will be left free to vote as it desires in the convention.

Sulzer Vote Desired.

The object of this is to permit the Sullivans, with their following, to cast their votes for William Sulzer, who they have announced is their choice for Governor. Mayor McClellan and the delegates who stand with him will vote for Jerome. Whether Boss Murphy will vote for Hearst or not remains to be seen.

It was declared today that the entire combined vote of Mayor McClellan and the Sullivans will be cast for Sulzer after the second ballot at Buffalo, if there is no result on the first ballot.

Congressman Parsons' forces defeated the Odell-Quigg combine for the control of the Republican County Committee. Long before midnight, with the results not yet in from the Second, Thirteenth, Twenty-third and Twenty-fifth Districts, Herbert Parsons had won districts carrying 400 votes in the County Committee, more than a majority.

In the 19 districts in which were contests Parsons carried ten and Quigg five. The result in the other four districts is not known.

KILLED IN WRECK.

O. A. Palmer of Springfield, Mo., who is a guest at the St. James Hotel, received a telegram Wednesday morning saying that his brother, Paul Palmer, an engineer, was killed when a freight train on the Frisco railroad went through a bridge at Carleton, near Enid, Oklahoma. Mr. Palmer will leave Wednesday afternoon for Enid to take charge of the body.

Miss Villa Palmer, a sister of the dead man who had been spending a few days in St. Louis, left Wednesday morning for Springfield before the message arrived.

The dead man was an engineer on a northbound Frisco train which fell into the South Canadian River at Carleton about noon Tuesday.

A special from Enid says that Fireman Kuhns of Blackwell, Okla., was buried under the engine and Brakeman Priest is missing. Conductor Spindel and a brakeman who were in the caboose were saved. The engine and four cars were buried in the rapidly rising stream.

New Endeavor Officers.

At the annual convention of the Christian Endeavor societies of the Sixth Missouri District, just closed at Salem, several St. Louisans were elected to office. The officers elected are: President, Theodore O. Hoffman, St. Louis; vice-president, Miss Georgia Cugh, Salem; secretary, Miss Katherine M. Scott, St. Louis; assistant secretary, Mrs. Paul H. Gibson, Elberry; treasurer, Mrs. Marcia Blaikie, Webster Groves; chorister, A. B. McMullin, Hillsboro; intermediate superintendent, J. Edwards White, St. Charles; junior superintendent, Miss Hattie Mummert, St. Louis; lookout commissioner, C. J. Forward, St. Louis.

WOMEN'S TRAINING SCHOOL OPENS

Occupies New Home at 3434 Morgan Street Which Affords More Room.

CLASSES NEARLY FULL

Instruction in Sewing and Stenography Begun—Cooking Course Oct. 2.

The new home of the Women's Training School at 3434 Morgan street is most conveniently located, being only a short block from car lines on Grand, Lucas and Franklin avenues. A visit to the new locality will show many changes in the interior of the building to make it serve the needs of the school. The classrooms are light and well ventilated and more commodious than at the old place, thus making it possible to accommodate more pupils.

The superintendent, Mrs. Clara A. Coates, reports last week's enrollment the heaviest first week's enrollment in the history of the school. Some classes are full and others with only a few vacancies. There is space for the forming of but few new classes. It is expected that by the first week in October all classes will be full.

The classes now arranged for are: Plain sewing, Monday and Thursday morning; advanced sewing, Monday and Thursday afternoon, and Wednesday and Saturday morning; dressmaking, Tuesday and Friday morning and Tuesday and Friday afternoon; millinery, Tuesday and Friday afternoon; stenography and typewriting, every day; trained attendants, every day; invalid cookery, Wednesday and Saturday morning. The above classes are now open.

The cooking school proper will begin Oct. 2, with classes Monday and Thursday mornings, Tuesday and Friday mornings and evenings. Practical housekeeping, Wednesdays at 1 p. m.

Evening classes for business women will begin Oct. 2, with sewing and dressmaking, Tuesday and Friday.

Evening classes for any department will be formed and work begun as soon as the required number of pupils is enrolled.

The officers for 1906 are: President, Mrs. C. C. Rainwater, 21 Benton place; vice-presidents, Mrs. E. E. Hickok, 4031 Morgan street; Mrs. Samuel Barron, Webster Groves; Mrs. M. L. Deeds, 3506 Barrett street; Mrs. J. G. Hinchman, 4611 Delmar boulevard. Secretary, Mrs. A. B. Croll, 2860 Eads avenue; treasurer, Mrs. Powell Jackson, 5029 Cabanne avenue; superintendent, Mrs. Clara A. Coates.

FROM COW TO SHOE.

Burlesque Factory for Label Day Parade.

At least one of the many floats in the label parade Oct. 3 will be very unique. The Peters Shoe Co.'s float will be a burlesque shoe factory. The animal will be fed into one end of the miniature factory whole, and presto, it will come out in shoes. This novelty is counted upon for many laughs along the route of the parade. Killing and skinning the animals, tanning the hides will all be done away with in this exhibit. If the shoes were only high boots the display line might read "From calf to calf."

The float will be 18 feet high, 25 feet long and 8 feet wide, and will cost several hundred dollars. Other firms have not intimated so far what the nature of their floats will be.

COW ON BATTLESHIP

Governor-General Grey Starts On Fishing Trip.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 19.—Governor-General Grey and wife will leave Victoria today for a fishing trip along Victoria Island Coast.

A cow, which will supply the titled party with milk, is to be taken along in a British man-of-war.

Ad Men Discuss Ethics.

Hugh Montgomery of Chicago, acting president of the National Federation of Advertising Men, addressed the St. Louis Advertising Men's League in the Planter's Hotel Tuesday night, when the league resumed its meetings after the summer vacation. C. M. Clendenin spoke on "The Ethics of Advertising." President Aubuchon anounced that $2500 has been subscribed for the national convention to be held in this city in October. He expects 500 ad men to attend.

E. St. Louis News

The annual county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held Monday at the United Presbyterian Church. The convention will be called to order at 10:30 a. m. by Mrs. A. M. Nixon of Marissa. Reports of county officers will be heard and officers will be elected. At 7:30 p. m. a session will be held at St. Patrick's School Hall, where an address will be made by Mrs. Leonora Lake of St. Louis.

The Police Committee of the City Council will meet Thursday night to hear evidence and pass on the charges that have been preferred against five policemen and detectives. A report will be made at the next meeting of the Council.

The silver medal contest to be given under the auspices of the Lansdowne W. C. T. U., which has been once postponed, will be held Thursday night at the Lansdowne Christian Church.

Joseph Perry, a saloon keeper on St. Clair avenue, who was arrested Sunday, charged with violating the Sunday closing law, entered a plea of guilty before Justice Brady and was fined $10 and costs.

The Ladies' Society of Protection will give a euchre and ice-cream social Thursday afternoon in the lodge hall in the Metropolitan Building.

In a raid on a craps game at Cooney's saloon on Collinsville avenue, adjoining Lindell Park, four men were arrested. James Cooney was charged with conducting a gambling house and A. R. Carpenter, Joseph Hoar and Ernest Malone were charged with gambling. They gave bonds for their appearance for trial. Cooney was a police Sergeant several years ago.

The funeral of the 3-months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McCaslin of 1811 Bond avenue, who died Monday night, was held Wednesday afternoon to Mount Hope Cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Margaret Schokman of Lansdowne, who died Tuesday at St. Mary's Hospital, will be held at 2 p. m. Thursday from the family home, 1423 Douglas avenue, to Mount Hope Cemetery.

The funeral of Gustav Surber, 58 years old, who died Tuesday at his home, 18 North Thirteenth street, of pneumonia, was held Wednesday afternoon to St. Peter's Cemetery. Surber was the organizer of the first Socialist society in East St. Louis, and has been a prominent worker in that movement for several years.

Ralph Morton and Miss Edith Modglen of 216 North Third street, who was formerly Mrs. Edith Gates, were refused a marriage license Wednesday morning because Mrs. Gates had obtained a divorce within the past year. Mr. Caughlin, the License Clerk, had obtained Mrs. Gates' divorce last September in his capacity as a lawyer, and when she applied for the license he looked up the date of the divorce and refused the license. [illegible] announced that they would go to St. Louis for the license.

DAILY RECORD OF MARKETS

LOCAL STOCKS ACTIVE; PARITY

Transactions in Stocks and Bonds of United Railways the Feature.

BANK LIST IS QUIET

Kansas City Home Telephone and Commonwealth Trust Are in Good Demand.

The Wednesday morning session of the local Stock Exchange was the most active in several days, there being larger transactions in several stocks of the miscellaneous list as well as active inquiry for bank and trust issues.

There is unacountable activity in the securities of the United Railways, which were a pronounced feature at the morning session at firm prices. There is no gossip of any kind relative to the market for traction securities, but a continuation of the activity is looked for.

The sales of shares of Commonwealth Trust Co. were at firm prices, but the bids made were not sufficiently high to bring out the issue.

STOCKS OPEN ACTIVE, FIRM

Baltimore and Reading Again Come Up as the Features.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Sept. 19.—With cable of a range of ⅛ to ⅜ higher in London for American stocks, the opening of the New York Exchange today is at a slight advance in most standard issues and industrials, with no sensational movements.

Harriman's Pacifics both opened fractionally higher, Southern being ¼ up at 94¼, and Union ⅛ up at 188⅜. Missouri Pacific opened strong and active, but fractionally lower than Tuesday's close.

Pennsylvania, Reading and Norfolk & Western were all at an advance over the close of Tuesday, from ¼ to a point, with great activity included in Pennsylvania and Reading, the extensive trading in the latter having been declared to be competition between the Harriman interests and Lake Shore, which is said to already hold quite a block of Reading common stock.

Erie was only ⅛ higher at 48⅜ at the opening, while St. Paul showed greater evidence of strength by opening ½ higher at 177½. Rock Island is firm and in good demand at 27¼, an advance of ¼ over Tuesday's close.

Smelter and Copper are fractionally higher and active, while the fuels and Steel are about parity. Other industrials were weak and fractionally lower.

There was an intimation given out on the floor this morning that there would be an announcement soon of rights for New York Central shares. While it was not stated, the source of any new rights in that stock may come from the recent sale of New York Central coal properties. The information had no effect on the opening price of the security, which was ⅛ lower than the close of the previous day.

One characterization of the Reading deal is that it is a squeeze of shorts and will not last, and that if the advance continues and competition buying is defined the result will be a bletterment of some other stocks and act in the opposite manner for others. Another sentiment on the floor was that the alleged Harriman B. & O. deal was "not liked," the comment being coupled with advice to sell it on dips.

Republic Iron and Steel advanced from 38⅝ to 40½ during the first hour this morning. This is supposed to be the result of the information that at the meeting of Tennessee Coal and Iron board on Oct. 10, $20,000,000 new stock issue will be made with which to complete the deal whereby Republic will come entirely under control of the Tennessee.

After the first hour the strength disappeared from the market and declines were shown through almost the entire list. This was particularly noticeable in Reading, Pennsylvania, Baltimore, St. Paul and Harriman's Pacifics.

LOCAL MONEY.

Messrs. George H. Burr & Co., commercial paper brokers, 31 Third National Bank Building, report local money—

Indorsed bills receivable, 4 to 6 months, 6 per cent; high-grade and single-name paper, 4 to 6 months, 6 to 6½ per cent; other names, not so well known, 6 to 6½ per cent; call money on good security, 6 per cent. Demand for money good. Bankers report business active.

H. Clay Pierce of the Waters-Pierce Oil Co. is a director in the new Bank of Commerce and Industry, just opened in the City of Mexico. The institution has $10,000,000 capital.

Missouri Pacific earnings for the second week in August show an increase of $64,000 over the previous week. These are the first figures on crop movement and it is said increases will show larger for subsequent periods.

The large steel-making corporation now has orders booked for over a billion dollars' worth of their produce, with no decrease in business in sight.

The Government deposits against gold in transit Wednesday are $27,878,000.

Wednesday the first quotation for call money on the New York Stock Exchange was 7 per cent.

Announcing a decrease of cash on hand of $6,840,000, the Imperial German Bank increased its discount rate to 6 per cent.

In the speculative market the money situation is still held to be the feature, and the regular rates for call money are not looked for until after several big railroad and industrial deals are settled.

Notice was received of the declaration of the regular quarterly dividend of 1¾ per cent on the stock of the St. Louis Catering Co., payable Oct. 20. Books close Oct. 13 and reopen Oct. 21.

The United States Telephone Co., the stock of which was recently listed on the local Exchange, has declared a dividend of ¾ per cent on the common stock and 1½ per cent on the preferred. Books close Sept. 25 and reopen Sept. 21.

Announcement is made that on Oct. 1, 1906, the Orthwein Investment Co. will become local correspondents for the well-known commission house of Bartlett, Frazier & Carrington of New York and Chicago.

Local bank clearings and balances today: Clearings, $9,538,208; last week, $10,677,365. Balances today, $956,628; last week, $744,769.

Today's shipments of currency to the Southwest were considerable in volume, most of the funds being forwarded to Texas and Oklahoma points. The cotton crop is not moving in as large measure as expected, but bankers look for a healthy marketward flow of this staple shortly. Locally interest rates have shown no change since the beginning of the week.

D. A. Bowman said today, in discussing the local bond market: "The St. Louis market shows a trifle improved tone for bonds. Easier money will pave the way for a further improvement. The average investor does not realize the relative cheapness of the standard listed security and as usual the institutional demand will probably cause the coming betterment."

JUSTICE LOOKS AT LAND.

Adjourns Court to See Property in Dispute.

Rather than listen to the testimony of 28 witnesses as to the topography of a piece of land in O'Fallon, Justice Wangelin of Belleville adjourned court until he had time to go to O'Fallon and see the property himself. The case on trail was a trespass suit against Dominick Zitzmann, street inspector of O'Fallon and Thomas Grenier, Edward Goetz and Ben Schmidt. The case was filed by John Davison, a constable and member of the City Council of O'Fallon, for his mother-in-law, Mrs. Dorothea Jungbluth.

Mrs. Jungbluth is said to own the property on which the Street Inspector and his men are alleged to have laid a drain tile. The inspector alleges that the land is a natural watercourse and that he had the right to do so. Davison alleges that the resolution authorizing and ordering the work was passed at a meeting of the City Council that he did not attend. Over 40 witnesses had been subpenaed in the case, 28 of them being witnesses to describe the topography of the piece of land in question. Justice Wangelin went to O'Fallon Wednesday afternoon.

Athletic Meet at Fair.

An athletic meet, with contests between representatives of different athletic associations for gold and silver medals, is to be one of the features of the St. Clair County Fair, to be held in Belleville the first week in October. Arrangements were completed Tuesday night at a meeting of representatives of the Belleville Turnverein, the West End Athletic Club, the Dewey Athletic Club and the Junior Bible Class Athletic Club, the four associations to be in the contests. The events agreed on are a 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 440-yard dash, 880-yard dash, one-mile run, pole vault, hammer throw, shotput, running high jump and running broad jump. One of the days at the fair will be known as Athletic Day, in honor of the meet, but the day has not been designated yet.

The extension to the Grant farm will not be made until next year. The line follows a route up the valley of Rives des Peres. It will be finely equipped and will carry passengers to the city for one five-cent fare.

EARLY GRAIN PRICES STRONG

Wheat Advances Half a Point at Opening—Other Grains Follow.

Local traders were mostly primed for higher prices at Wednesday's opening of the grain market, and under the good buying based on the strength in Chicago, the high curb market in Minneapolis, and the higher Liverpool cables, the prices of wheat advanced about ½c at the opening. Cables from Liverpool were ⅛ to 1 penny higher. Corn and oats also opened strong, the former advancing about ⅛c and the latter about ⅛c.

Sentiment was very bullish early in the day, and buying orders were plentiful, but prices were held in check at the advance by some long profit-taking sales and some selling againsts calls. In the early trading, after the advance had been made, the market was very nervous, but a good undertone was noted.

Corn opened strong on some short covering and some good buying by the local pit crowd. Early in the day corn prices were quoted at a ⅛c advance over Tuesday. The buying in corn was caused mostly by the bulge in wheat.

Oats prices opened strong and scored a good advance mainly in sympathy with wheat. Oats prices sagged somewhat after the advance on long selling, but the advance was maintained.

December wheat opened ⅜@½c higher at 72c, went as high as 72¼c, and back to 72c.

May option opened ½c higher at 76¾, and in the early trading was quoted at 76⅛@⅜c.

December corn opened ⅛c higher at 40⅞c, and advanced steadily to 41⅛c. May option opened ⅜c higher at 41⅝c.

December oats opened ⅛@¼c higher at 33⅛c and reached 33⅜c. May future opened ⅛ to ⅜c higher at 35⅛@⅜c.

Early offerings of all grains were very light.

MIDLAND NATIONAL FIRE INSURANCE CO. of St. Louis, Mo. Notice of withdrawal of securities. State of Missouri, city of St. Louis—ss.

Before me, May M. Spyer, a notary public, duly commissioned and qualified in and for the city of St. Louis and State of Missouri on this day personally appeared John E. Huiskamp, who, being duly sworn, on his oath stated that he is the secretary and treasurer and is the only surviving officer of the Midland National Fire Insurance Co. of St. Louis, Mo., and said John E. Huiskamp further stated that the said insurance company has ceased the transaction of all insurance business, and said company hereby makes application to withdraw the securities belonging to said company and now held on deposit by the Insurance Department of the State of Missouri.

J. E. HUISKAMP,
Secretary and Treasurer Midland National Fire Insurance Co.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of September, A. D., 1906. My commission expires Dec. 1, 1909.

(Seal.) MAY M. SPEYER, Notary Public.

To Whom It May Concern:

Whereas the Midland National Fire Insurance Co. of St. Louis, Mo., has made formal application to this department, verified by the affidavit of its secretary and treasurer, the only surviving officer of said company, for the withdrawal of the deposit of securities of said company now held by this department, and has stated, under oath, that said Midland National Fire Insurance Co. has ceased to write insurance and is now no longer conducting the business of fire insurance in this or any other state, place or Territory, and that all debts and liabilities of every kind that are due or may become due upon all contracts or agreements made with the policy holders in said Midland National Fire Insurance Co., or in any company reinsured by said company, will be released, satisfied or extinguished. Now, therefore, I, W. D. Vandiver, superintendent of the Insurance Department of the State of Missouri, in compliance with the provisions of section [illegible] Revised Statutes of Missouri, [illegible] hereby give notice of the intention of the Midland National Fire Insurance Co. to withdraw its deposit of securities in this state, and that I shall on, or any time after, Wednesday, Oct. 17, A. D. 1906, the law then having been fully complied with, turn over and surrender all of the said securities held on deposit by this department, to the Midland National Fire Insurance Co. of St. Louis, Mo., or to the person or agent duly authorized to represent said company.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and the seal of this department on this 4th day of September, A. D. 1906.

(Seal.) W. D. VANDIVER, Superintendent.

McGREW WILL QUIT GLEN ECHO'S CHAIR

Founder and Continuous President of Famous Golf Club Notifies Directors That He Will Not Be Candidate for Re-Election.

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Glen Echo Golf and Country Club, held Tuesday night, President George S. McGrew, who conceived the idea of the club, founded it and who has been its president continuously since its organization in 1900, announced that he would not be a candidate for re-election to the presidency of the club in March, 1907, when the annual election of officers takes place.

Inasmuch as Col. McGrew has been regarded as largely the Glen Echo Club, and has been tacitly accepted as its president in perpetuity, his announcement surprised the directors. Many of them said that they had expected he would be president of Glen Echo as long as he lived. His announcement of retirement at this season is entirely unexpected. Gen. McGrew said that his withdrawal from the presidency came as a natural corollary to labors successfully and entirely completed.

How Glen Echo Was Founded.

"In 1899 I became imbued with the idea that we needed another country club in St. Louis. The only one then existing had a full membership and an immense waiting list. With the co-operation of the late Wayman McCreery, Julius Kessler, Murray Carleton, J. D. Curlee and others, I organized Glen Echo. We began modestly at first, but as we grew older our ideas expanded and the club and premises grew with us. Twice the organization has been in grave danger of death for lack of funds. The first time was 1901, our first year. It was a hot summer, the grass burned up and there was little to attract golfers to a club. Again, in 1903, it was a question of enlarge or liquidate. We enlarged and flourished.

"Two years ago we sold a share of stock for $750 and were glad to get that price. Today that stock is worth $750 a share and more of it is on the market. I think its expansion in value is unequaled and unexampled in the history of golf or country clubs.

"What was a weed-grown and abandoned farm has become a beauty spot. Last week Mr. Bendelow of Chicago, a golfer who has visited every large club in Europe and America, assured me that Glen Echo was the largest, handsomest and prettiest club in the world. Yet six years ago the ground upon which it stands was a waste of weeds. The site of the present clubhouse was given over to shacks for negro laborers.

Will Purchase Property.

Five years ago we obtained an option of purchase on the property for $100,000. We will consummate this purchase Jan. 1, 1907. We could sell it for twice its face value today. At one time I personally held this option and turned it over to the club.

"In the five years we have been operating we have conducted every important fixed golf tournament in America except the national and open championships. We have had the Olympic, Western, Transmississippi and State championships.

"When I organized this club, friends told me I was making a great mistake and attempting the impossible. I think I have shown them that it was not impossible.

"We have the finest house, the prettiest grounds, the best inland golf course in the world. We have a dairy, a chicken farm, a vegetable and fruit garden; in fact, almost everything we consume is produced on the premises.

Thanks His Co-Operators.

"I have had the support of a splendid lot of fellows and a sympathetic Board of Directors. To them is due no meager part of the credit which they so kindly accord me. I can never forget the support they have given me. Without it I could not have accomplished anything. Their wit, their good sense, their support and, above all, their money, made these miracles possible.

"I am refusing re-election to the presidency because I am, like a man who has made enough money, eager to retire and enjoy life. The weight of a club is too much for me to carry any longer. It calls for much work and worry. Every little complaint, protest, etc., comes to me to take care of. I am just weary of it all. When I turn over a purchased property, a complete club, which is the best in the world, and does not owe a cent, I am willing to shift the burden upon the shoulders of some other man. I will turn over everything in perfect order, and then proceed to enjoy life as a private gentleman. I possess a perpetual membership in Glen Echo, and after March 1, 1907, you will find me playing golf and letting some other person do the worrying."

It is said that the Board of Directors and members of the Glen Echo Club will have a word to say about Gen. McGrew's refusal to accept re-election, and that he may not find it as easy to toss the cares of the onerous office from his shoulders as he imagines.

ROOSEVELT BOXING

Kermit Begins Learning Art of Self-Defense.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

BOSTON, Mass., Sept. 19.—Kermit Roosevelt is about to take up the art of self-defense, and after a few lessons from Fred Bryson of Waltham, some exciting though friendly bouts may be in order at the White House with Teddy Sr. as one of the principals.

Bryson has been appointed instructor at the select private school at Groton, and he will have for a pupil young Kermit. This is young Roosevelt's first year in the boxing class, but Bryson considers him one of the most promising pupils.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

THE WORST DISEASE IN THE WORLD

Contagious Blood Poison is the worst disease in the world; not only those who contract it suffer, but the awful taint is often transmitted to innocent offspring whose lives are blighted and bodies diseased because the virus of Contagious Blood Poison has been allowed to remain in the family blood. The first sign of this disease is usually a little pimple or blister, then a red rash breaks out, the mouth and throat ulcerate, the hair comes out, copper colored spots appear on the limbs, back and breast; and as the disease more thoroughly pollutes the blood, sores and ulcers form and if the trouble is not checked the finger nails drop off, and the soft bones of the nose and head are destroyed. S. S. S. goes down into the blood and forces out every particle of the poison and makes a complete and lasting cure. As soon as the system gets under the influence of the remedy the symptoms begin to pass away, and when the cure is complete the patient is left in perfect health. So thoroughly does S. S. S. rid the system of the virus that no signs of the disease are ever seen in after years, and posterity is born with a rich, pure blood supply. Book with complete instructions for home treatment and any medical advice desired will be given without charge.

I contracted Contagious Blood Poison by using a towel used by some infected person and had every symptom of the vile disorder. I tried everything I heard of but the disease got worse until I heard of S. S. S. which I commenced, and continued the treatment until I was entirely well. This was some time ago and I have never seen the slightest sign of the disease since. JOS. SCHLOEMER. 801 Allen Ave., St. Louis, Mo.

HUNTING HUSKIES JUST THE SAME

Though New Rugby Rules Are Framed to Favor Light Men Coaches Seek Big Fellows.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Sept. 19.—The football grounds at Missouri University present a lively aspect these days and a general air of optimism seems to prevail. If the present season is a failure, it will certainly not be due to lack of enthusiasm. Candidates are plentiful and the material looks good. The fact that the new rules are said to be favorable to lightweight teams does not deter the authorities here from keeping a weather eye on the lookout for the husky boys, and efforts will be made to put a heavier team in the field than was the case last season.

The prospects really look good. Monilaw, the new coach, seems to know his business. Director Heatherington is optimistic; there is abundance of spirit among the boys, and enough money in the treasury to start the season in good style.

Fifty-nine men are already out in suits and more will be out in a few days. The coach is well pleased with some of the men.

Monilaw will have some good men to work with. Men like Graves, Jewett, La Rue, White, Roberts, Livingston and others look good to him. Graves is a 190-pound man from Westport High School, Kansas City, who was here last year, and played on the Freshman team. It already looks as if he had a "sure thing" for a place on the team. Another "sure thing" man is Jewett, in whom Monilaw believes he has found a star for the backfield. Trowbridge, Rutherford and Tidd will have a close fight for quarterback. A good center is much in demand.

Athletic Atoms

As Athletic Director Bassett of the M. A. C. intends to take his vacation probably next week, and two of the M. A. C. athletes, Harry Kiener and Gwynne Evans, are not in the best of condition, the all around competition which was to have been held Saturday on the Triple A grounds has been indefinitely postponed. This is about the sixth time that the competition has been postponed and the chances are that it will be dropped entirely.

C. M. Daniels, the New York A. C. champion short distance swimmer, is still in St. Louis. Daniels is taking life easy now as he has been in constant training from early in the spring, first for the Olympic world's championship swims at Athens, Greece; then for the English races, and as soon as he returned home he competed in the Metropolitan championships, while last week he won the 10, 220 and 440 yards W. A. A. U. swims at Laughlin's Lake in St. Louis County.

The idea of appointing an official W. A. A. U. representative to attend all amateur boxing tournaments held during the winter is meeting with great favor. Amateur boxing is a hard sport to control and the only way the A. A. U. officials have had of keeping track of the game is through newspaper reports. It is hardly probable that the W. A. A. U. will appoint an official referee, as such an action would undoubtedly prove objectionable to the clubs holding amateur boxing tournaments.

In spite of the fact that they lack a regular coach and the team will be forced to play under the rigid conference rules, Manager P. A. Richardson of the Washington University football squad announced that the university will be represented by a football team this season and the following schedule arranged for: Sept. 13, Rose Poly at St. Louis; Oct. 20, Arkansas at Fayetteville, Ark.; Nov. 3, Drury at St. Louis; Nov. 10, Missouri at St. Louis; Nov. 24, Texas University probably at St. Louis. With the exception of Luckey all of last year's eleven is expected to return to school.

It is feared that the M. A. C. basket ball team, which for years has held the local championship, will be badly crippled by the loss of Guard Busch. Busch is married and his wife does not wish him to play the game. Athletic Director Bassett is trying his best to get Mrs. Busch to change her mind, as the loss of such an experienced player would break up the team work of the Cherry Diamond five, and team work is the main requirement for a winning basket ball team.

Tom Aitken reports that he expects the city championship tennis tournament, which will open on the club courts Saturday, to be one of the best held in years. Billy Connett and Biron Anderson, State champions in doubles, both Triple A men, are the pair that the vetran, Aitken, is most anxious to see win.

Manager Jack Hobelman of the Nugent team of the Dry Goods League denies that his team was defeated by the Ellendales at Maplewood last Sunday, but instead it was the second Nugent team that lost. Hobelman is after a game with the Ellendales for the first Nugent team to be played on Saturday, as most of the first team players are Trolley Leaguers and consequently could not play on Sunday.

Dividend, but No Transfers.

The board of directors of the United Railways Co. met Tuesday and declared the regular quarterly dividend of 1¼ per cent on the preferred stock, payable Oct. 10. The board discussed the final details of the plan for the absorption of the Suburban, but no definite action was taken. The Suburban stockholders have until Nov. 1 to deposit their stock with the United Railways Co. to participate in the merger plan, and no definite action, such as arranging for transfers, will be taken until after that date.

BASEBALL BABBLE

McAleer has notions of playing O'Brien at third. He says that the White Sox, a terrific team of bunters, tried to bunt Peter out of it and that he made them stop it. He handles hard-hit balls all right and is a sure boy on flies.

So after all it may be a second baseman, not a third bagman, that McAleer is in need of.

The Highlanders will make their last appearance of the season Thursday afternoon at Sportsman's Park. They will play off a postponed game then.

The Ravens will meet the Highlanders at Sportsman's Park Wednesday. Doyle or Orth will go to the slab for Griffith. Powell, Smith or Jacobson will oppose them.

Glade showed his old-time form when he held those bears from Broadway down to three hits.

Conroy bounced a fly into the left field bleachers in the second inning.

Clarkson, Hughes and Griffith in vain tried to stop the relentless slugging of the McAleerites.

Stone bingled best for the Ravens. He was the author of a triple and a single. He scored two runs and was at bat three times. Batting average for the day, .667.

Kleinow with a double was the manufacturer of the only extra base hits besides Stone's triple and Conroy's home run.

The Raven outfielder accepted seven chances. Stone collared five, Hemphill squeezed onto two and Niles had none.

Hartzell may not be a Wallace, but he accepted nine chances without a bobble. He also made a hit.

Conroy in left field had six putouts to his credit.

Glade, Jones and Laporte made sacrifice hits. Not a stolen base was recorded by the official scorer.

Harold Chase, the brilliant first baseman of the Highlanders, 'tis rumored, will be married to Miss Hefferan of Bayonne, N. J., next spring. Mr. Chase met the future Mrs. Chase while playing an exhibition game at Bayonne.

Although the Cardinals outbatted Hugh Duffy's Phillies 7 to 6, they lost a bitterly fought game by the score of 3 to 2. Fromme pitched for McCloskey and was hit only in one inning, the first.

All the scoring of the Cardinal-Phillies game was done in two innings. The Phillies scored three runs in the first inning and the Cardinals scored two in the fifth.

Bennett stung the leather best for the Cardinals. He slammed out two hits in four trials.

Burch hammered out a triple in three tries. Jack Barry made a two-bagger.

Thomas and Grady stole the only bases.

Bennett accepted seven chances at second base without the semblance of an error.

The Cardinal outfield had but two putouts. Barry and Murry made one apiece. Burch had nothing to do.

The Cardinals will meet the Phillies Wednesday. Karger or Rhoades will oppose Pittinger or Lush.

Fromme struck out five Phillies and Sparks four Cardinals.

Miner Brown was touched for eleven hits and six runs, and the Cubs lost to Boston, 6 to 4.

Lindaman opposed Brown. Eleven hits were made off him, but he kept them well scattered.

Howard led the Beaneaters with the willow. He made three hits in four tries.

Johnnie Evers made a double play unassisted.

Chance was the best stinger for the Cubs. Frank slammed out two hits. He was at bat four times.

The Reds and Dodgers broke even in a double-header. The Reds won the first game and Brooklyn the latter.

Weimer and Scanlon were the opposing twirlers in the first, while Fraser and McIntyre were pitted against each other in the second.

Homer Smoot batted .500 for the first time in four days. Homer made four hits in eight tries.

The Giants defeated their bitter enemies, the Pirates, 5 to 1.

Wagner batted 1,000 as usual. Hans was at bat twice and both times he slammed the sphere safely.

Thrice Spike Shannon strode to the plate and thrice Spike Shannon failed to hit safely.

Devlin batted best for McGraw. Arthur made two hits in three efforts.

Cleveland with Joss and Hess as boxmen won a double header from the Nationals. With the exception of the brilliant pitching Turner's work at short was the feature of the game. Cotton accepted 20 chances without an error.

Jones in center for Washington made 12 put-outs.

Rossman was the author of five in seven tries.

Nig Clarke and John Anderson each pummeled out a four-bagger in the first game.

Owen told Comiskey and Fielder Jones, he had recovered his nerves which were so rudely jarred by the Ravens and asked permission to twirl. The request was granted and to get revenge he let the Athletics down with five hits.

PROJECT TO MATCH GOTCH AND BEALL

John Mooney of St. Louis Interested in Project to Bring Wrestlers Together.

It is very probable that Frank Gotch, the American heavyweight champion wrestler, and Fred Beall will meet in a match for the championship in St. Louis this fall. John Mooney, a well-known local sportsman, has been interested in wrestling for a number of years and is now trying to bring Beall and Gotch together and he is hopeful that he will secure the men.

Beall is considered the only man in the country who can give Gotch a really hard match, as he is strong, clever, fast, and, most of all, an experienced mat artist. George Baptiste, the local wrestler, declares that it would be the best wrestling match in years, and if St. Louis does not secure the contest and some other city does, he is going to see the bout if he has to go all the way to Canada to do so. Baptiste is of the opinion that the men will meet in St. Louis, however.

Amateur Notes

The Sacred Hearts defeated the Young Lansdownes in a nicely played game by the score of 9 to 5. The battery work of Weaver and Dougherty and the batting of Frader for the winners was the feature of the game.

The Buster Browns would like to arrange games with all teams playing in the 13 and 14-year-old class. Address H. Feldotto, 1313 St. Louis avenue.

The Twentieth Centuries won a double-header Sunday by defeating the Forest Citys, 10 to 8, and the K. K. K.'s, 9 to 3. The winners would like to arrange games with all teams playing in the 14 and 15-year-old class. Address E. J. Wall, Edgebrook, Mo.

The I. T. C.'s defeated the Pilgrims in a one-sided game by the top-heavy score of 23 to 1. Ranken of the winners struck out 19 men.

RAVENS SETTLE HIGHLANDERS' HOPES

Defeat of Tuesday About Destroys Whatever Slim, Slender Chances Griffith Had of Winning the Pennant of the American League.

Glade's surpassing efficiency in the box, a wild throw by Chase which gave the Ravens three runs—enough to win—Clarkson's wildness and the ability of the local American League club to hit Hughes, who supplanted Clarkson, put Mr. Griffith and his Highlanders out of the race for the American League pennant at Sportsman's Park Tuesday afternoon.

With the White Sox winning from the Athletics, Belshazzar Griff read, in the script on the score board, the notice of the destruction of his hopes for the pennant in 1906.

To be sure, he still has a chance. He may win two games from St. Louis Wednesday and Thursday and he may break even in four at Chicago on the Sox's own lines and then take a majority from Cleveland. All this is possible and would give him a chance.

But, with a pitifully weak pitching staff, is it likely that he shall accomplish all this? Truly we think not.

Griff was fortunate to get away with Monday's game from St. Louis. Hemphill's error and Conroy's noble throw held it for him by a few inches. The Ravens should have had it.

On Tuesday Glade had the Highlanders at his mercy. They could not hit him.

Griffith is not in good shape for the run through the last eighth. He has a good club in the field and at the bat, a better club than Chicago, a better club than the Athletics, a better run getting club but not a better all around club than Cleveland. But he is weak in the pitching department.

Every last one of his pitchers can be hit. Chesbro has lost all his cunning, Orth always was hittable, but a good average pitcher. Newton is to the bad. Hughes is evidently only a very average man. Clarkson has action, but seems to have to work too hard to attain speed. Hogg is not a very strong man on the rubber. Indeed, Griff, with his little old dinks—inside, outside, highside and lowside, but never in the groove, is about as good as any of them.

So it seems that Griffith's dream of glory is ended, his kingdom of hope passed away. He may as well abandon ambition for this season. To be sure, Griff is game, and he will fight. But what is the use of fighting when you cannot win, even though Cyrano—please pronounce it See-rawno, like Mr. Mansfield, not Ci-ranno, like Jake Bene, or Cy-renno, like Joe Lydon, but See-rawno, like the authority—"it is more glorious to fight when there is a chance of winning." So from now until the end Griff will be doing the "See-rawno" act—fighting when there is no chance of winning.

As for playing a post-season series with the Giants, Griff is willing, but it is plain that his employer, Frank Farrell, is not. Griff stalls when you ask him what he is going to do about the Giants and says, "Wait until we dispose of the Sox first." The players want to go McGraw for the money there is in it, for them. But Farrell hates Brush, who owns the Giants, and there you are.
